Dean William S. Taylor, Ph. D., who is director of the summer session, was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1912 with a Master's degree. From 1912 to 1918 Mr. Taylor taught in the College of Education at the University of Texas, and from there he went to Pennsylvania State College as head of the rural life department. In 1920 he took charge of the training and certification of teachers in the department of public instruction at Harrisburg, Pa. In 1923 he received his research scholarship at Columbia, after which he came back to his native state and took up his work as dean of the College of Education at the University. During the time Mr. Taylor has been here he has seen the College of Education grow from an enrollment of 67 in the fall of 1923 to 391 in the fall of 1927.

Sigma Nu Formal Dance

The Sigma Nu fraternity entertained with a delightful formal dance Saturday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock in the Men's gymnasium.

The fraternity colors, black and gold, were beautifully carried out in the decorations. Large black hat boxes emitting light through orange crepe paper in the form of the fraternity badge covered the lights. A lighted fraternity shield hung at each end of the room while in the center a large platform was arranged under the large black ball from which streamers of yellow, black and white were suspended. An added feature of the affair was the music furnished by Thelma Tierry and her Playboys, a nine-piece orchestra from Chicago

The guests were presented with attractive programs of black celluloid with the letters of Sigma Nu inscribed in gold. At the four no-break dances the lights were dimmed by special lighting effects.

Members of the active chapter, the hosts: Messrs. Llewelyn Bowen, Grover Boden, Hubert Buckles, Mickey Byrne, Robert Bird, J.
