In Memory of Aunt Dora Adams

Aunt Dora, as she was called by all who knew her, passed from this earth early Wednesday morning, December 8, 1948. Although in failing health for a long time the passing of this good sister caused great sorrow among all her relatives and friends. She was born August 19, 1875 and was the daughter of Uncle Dave L. and Aunt Lettie Adams Craft. She married the late Philip Adams of the Cumberland section, who passed from this life several years ago.

Aunt Dora and Philip early in life built their home on the head of Cram Creek near the foothills of the old Cumberland amidst the towering pine trees, and with happy hearts set out to rear a large family of boys and girls. This happy couple was blessed with eight children: McClellan who passed away in young manhood, Milford of the Cumberland section, Gilbert and Jason of Pound, Va., John of Norton, Va., Lettie Polly, Lethie Bolling, and Herbert of Mayking, these with her good father and one sister, Betsey, several grandchildren and four great grand children, and hundreds of friends and relatives to mourn her passing.

Upwards of twenty years ago Aunt Dora professed faith in Christ and joined the church of her choice living ever afterwards a noble Christian life. She attended Church when she was able and saw in her life time several of her children profess faith in the Saviour. She loved to tell her neighbors and friends about Jesus and never became weary of good singing and good preaching. Like the sun her life will shine on and on though she has gone from the earth. We want to say to the children, keep up the faith of your mother and follow in her footsteps. In her passing we all have lost but the world has been made better by her passing along this way. We deeply regret to see her go but we all must go that way. Today Aunt Dora is resting from all her labors in a city where there is no pain, no sorrow, and no more deaths. May the good lord bless her good father, sister, and all the children.

Funeral services were held at Cram Creek School House, Mayking, Ky., on Friday, Dec. 10, at 10:00 a. m. o'clock with Revs. Burtis Gene Adams, Bill Byrks, Jim Scott and Bruce Walker officiating.

Burial in Adams Cemetery Cram Creek, Ky., Craft Funeral Home in charge of Funeral arrangements.

The family wishes to extend their appreciation to all those who were so sympathetic and helpful in their hours of grief and need. Especially do they thank those who gave floral tributes, sat up during her sickness and death, the Ministers, Neighbors, friends and the Craft Funeral Home. May God extend his blessings to you all. —The Family of Dora Adams.
