JENKINS NEWS

By Ruby C. Adam

A special program of Christmas Music was given at the Methodist Church Sunday at 5:30 P. M.

Circle No 2 of the W. S. of C. met on Monday night Dec. 6th, in the home of Mrs. H. Hendry, with Mrs. L. D. Sniff as assistant hostess.

A church has been organized in Dairy Hollow and named the Lily Church. They now have an enrollment of 43 in Sunday School. Mr. Bryan Boge is Baptist, of the Sunday Sunday School. Church services are held Sunday evening by Rev. James of Jenkins or Brother George Mullins of Dairy Hollow.

The Jenkins Bottling Plant, owned and operated by Champion Stores has been purchased by the Neon Bottling Co., and will be moved to Neon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Webb of Slick Rock, purchased a small new home and have moved.

Mrs. Jake Smith and Mrs. Charles Taylor were shopping in Pikeville Saturday.

Miss Ernestine Adams, a member of the Champion Store office force, is working at the Dunham store at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pickering went to Millersburg Wednesday, after their son who is there in school. They will spend some time in Lexington on the return trip.

The Women’s Civic Club of Jenkins presented a comedy play in three acts entitled “Me and My Shadow” Thursday, Dec. 9, at 8:00 P. M., in the Jenkins High School Auditorium. The cast were: Helen M. Mullins, Mary J. Jenkins, and Ralph B. Jenkins.

Santa Claus visited Jenkins last Saturday at 9:00 A.M. and 3:00 P.M. taking orders and giving all good children bubble gum.

Mrs. Charlie and Mrs. Charles Taylor were shopping in Pikeville Saturday.

Woodie’s Sundaes — THE FLAMELESS LIGHTER

Daniel Boone Hotel, Bldg.
Wavesburg, Ky.

Smith, C. D., Halber, R. W.
Largent, R. C., Craft, B. L.
Blak, S. H., Kegan, Kenneth
Hughes, W. S., Stimpson
J. C. Dunn and Douglas Smith of Van Lear and H. C. Mercer and James Wilson of Clover Spur.

Twenty Years Ago

From the Maysville Eagle

Dec. 15th 20 years ago

Four full pages of Christmas advertising paid for by our business clients will go to our readers next week. Here you no word of greeting to send your friends and customers.

(Note incidently those papers were printed in red ink.)

The dental clinic will be held at the Letcher County Health unit (next door to the Daniel Boone Hotel on Friday, Saturday and Monday, Dec. 17th. The school age and under school age children are the ones to benefit.

Dr. B. E. May
Letcher County Health Unit

Thomas B. Collier of Neon announces the office of the Judge limited to Jefferson County.

Mr. Collier is a good member of the Odd Fellows and a Baptist Church and is one of the best known citizens in Boone Creek where he resides.

Owing to the fact that nearly a full page of legal matter had to be set on the Eagle this week we may be somewhat late in getting to our readers, besides this quite a lot of important news matter and current correspondence may go over till next week.

Private Burns L. Colwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Colwell of Whitesburg, who recently enlisted in the United States Regular Army sailed today from New York in Company with 477 newly joined soldiers. Private Colwell will be sent to Fort Sam Houston near San Antonio, Texas. (What about this, Private Colwell?—makes you feel quite young, eh?)

J. Henry Brown stated, that the 188 company was quite in the future that he had decided to announce for the office of Sheriff.

It seems that politics got

JEWELS

JEWELS

JEWELS

Mrs. Ben Robinson this week had the Eagle sent to her sisters in Texas and renewed her own in Neon for another year.

COME AND GET IT!

THERE’S MILK ENOUGH for ALL!

YES, MA’AM...

PURINA SOW & PIG CHOW

KEEPS SOWS’ UDDERS FILL!

You can feel sure that when a sow is getting Sow & Pig Chow her udders will be full of milk! That’s what makes big pigs at wean- ing... that’s what makes the most economical pig gain.

So let us figure you a milk-making miracle with your grain and Sow & Pig Chow! You can use the same ration for the pigs in the lean, too!

Your store with the checkboard sign

The Farmers Supply Co.

DISTRIBUTIONS

ROY GILLEY, Mgr.
Below Depot

WHITEBURG, KENTUCKY

Merry Christmas
to all the millions of families!

You like it... it likes you!

Abdoo-McKinney Jewelry Co.
Neon, Ky.