

POETRY.

ELEGANT EXTRACT.

(From Burns’s untold new Poem, in a letter to the Duke of Argyll, on the subject of his Majesty’s Life, and the venerable character of the ancient Scottish court.)

No more a poet, or a sage, or a hero.

The very name of Burns excites a voice, and the very name of Burns excites a tear. But when the name of Burns is written in letters of gold, and the name of Burns is written on the wing of a swan, then the name of Burns is written in characters of love, and the name of Burns is written on the heart.

The very name of Burns excites a voice, and the very name of Burns excites a tear. But when the name of Burns is written in letters of gold, and the name of Burns is written on the wing of a swan, then the name of Burns is written in characters of love, and the name of Burns is written on the heart.

LIST OF LETTERS.

- From the Office of the Postmaster General.
  - No. 1. To the Postmaster General. 6th January, 1813.
  - No. 2. To the Postmaster General. 10th January, 1813.
  - No. 3. To the Postmaster General. 15th January, 1813.

COACHMAN OF OVERTON.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of Coachman of Overtown, in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

WALTER JOHNSON.

TEN YOUTHS.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of Ten Young Men, in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

JAMES BOWDITCH.

STEAMBOAT.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of Steamboat, in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

JAMES DAVIES.

M. & C. CO.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of M. & C. Co., in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

JAMES DAVIES.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

Two very good horses, to be deranged at the earliest possible moment. For the said horses, any person who can procure them is desired to apply to the Subscriber, on the 1st of January, 1813.

JAMES BOWDITCH.

THE TAILORING BUSINESS.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of Tailoring Business, in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

JAMES BOWDITCH.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

To the Editor of the Postmaster General.

Gentlemen,—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have been appointed to the office of Love at First Sight, in the County of York, and that I am willing to undertake the duties of the said office, with a view to the public service.

I am, &c.

JAMES BOWDITCH.