NYC start set Nov. 15

A Neighborhood Youth Corps program for high school dropouts will be set for Louisville County about Nov. 15.

Don Theobald, who has been hired as NTC director for a four-county area including Letcher, told members of the Lesia, Knotz, Lansing, Perry County Council that recruitment of boys and girls for the program will start soon. He did not say when or how recruitment will take place.

The NYK is sponsoring the program, which will cost about three fourths of a million dollars. The program will provide jobs for 300 boys and girls 14-21 who have terminated compulsory school and have not been out of school for seven months.

Hiring of staff members for the program is due in advance of start of the program. A preliminary meeting of the county's NYK program will be held Friday in Louisville's East End of Labor in Watsonville, which ad-

The program is

The period of November 6-12 is American Education Week, and Letcher County parents have been issued a special invitation to visit the schools during that period.

School Superintendent Kendall
V. Bugg called the county board of education, the superintendent's staff, principals and teachers all in extending a special wel-cometo parents.

The program is sponsored by the Kentucky Education Radio Network, each day making a program on

A WARD WINNER—Mrs. Faith Spaw Hendley, teacher as Cow-us Elementary school near Whitesburg, is one of those who recived awards at the recent sixth annual Conservation Congress in Louisville. Her efforts were recognized for outstanding achievement through cleanup and beautification efforts.

PARENTS INVITED TO VISIT SCHOOLS

The nationwide theme for the week this year is "Education Aids Uplift" and consists of seven programs daily. Beginning Saturday, Nov. 6, each day will illustrate that eduction edu-
s up to the followings:

- To human dignity, to national thinking, to a creative spirit, to self-reliance, to economic compliance, to informed citizens-ship and to life-long opportu-

Funeral services were held at the Union Baptist Church in Floydsboro, Ky. on Saturday, Nov. 12 for Mr. George W. Craft, 48, who had been ill for two weeks.

Mr. Craft was a member of the Letcher County Baptist Church
and was a native of Whitesburg, Ky. The Rev. W. M. Willey and
the Rev. E. H. Willey officiated at the service, which was conducted in the Parish Hall of the church.

Funeral rites held for John Combs

Funeral services were held Monday for the home of John Combs, 57, who died of pneumonia in Letcher Regional Hospital after a long illness.

The Rev. W. M. Willey and
the Rev. E. H. Willey officiated at
the service, which was conducted
in the Parish Hall of the church.

Funeral rites held for John Combs

Funeral services were held at the Thuman Baptist Church in Floydsboro, Ky. on Saturday, Nov. 12 for
Mr. George W. Craft, 48, who had been ill for two weeks.

Mr. Craft was a member of the
Letcher County Baptist Church
and was a native of Whitesburg,
Ky. The Rev. W. M. Willey and
the Rev. E. H. Willey officiated at
the service, which was conducted
in the Parish Hall of the church.

Funeral rites held for John Combs

Funeral services were held at
the Union Baptist Church in Floyds-
boro, Ky. on Saturday, Nov. 12 for
Mr. George W. Craft, 48, who had been ill for two weeks.

Mr. Craft was a member of the
Letcher County Baptist Church
and was a native of Whitesburg,
Ky. The Rev. W. M. Willey and
the Rev. E. H. Willey officiated at
the service, which was conducted
in the Parish Hall of the church.

Funeral rites held for John Combs