

Rules and Regulations

1. All badges must be worn conspicuously, and any one found without a badge will be put off the grounds.
2. Tickets must be procured, as no money will be received at the gates.
3. Books for entry of stock will be open ten days before the Fair begins, and exhibitors should make their entry, if possible, before the Fair commences.
4. The Fair will open each morning at 9 o'clock, by which hour all entries should be made.
5. All stock should be entered in the name of the owner or his agent.
6. Exhibitors will please be careful that they enter their stock or articles in proper classes.
7. No person who is an exhibitor may act as judge in the ring in which he or she exhibits.
8. Judges must not confer with each other. When each judge has formed his or her opinion, they shall report the same to the Ringmaster, and he report their decision to the Secretary and then proclaim the names of all persons entitled to premiums.
9. Judges are requested to pay strict attention to the conditions governing the class in which they judge, and render their decisions accordingly.
10. No person except judges and members of the Association will be allowed in the ring while the stock is being exhibited.
11. The gates of the amphitheater will be closed ten minutes after the call of the Marshal for each class of stock.
12. No stock will be allowed to enter the ring unless under halter and in care of a groom.
13. If any person makes known to the judges his ownership of stock or article, or pedigree thereof, they shall not be entitled to a premium on said stock or article.
