GATHERING HOSTS FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Silver Men Determined to Organize The Convention—Bland Tipped For First Place.

Silver Men Satisfied.

Chicago, July 1.—Things are growing hotter both politically and atmospherically. Vice President Stevenson came to town today. The rumor was circulated that he had a boom concealed about his person but he denied carrying any such dangerous thing and all the numerous and important newspaper men in Chicago couldn't get a word out of him.

Neither the gold men nor the silver men are talking very much just now anyway, because everything is uncertain and no man knows what a day may bring forth. The sub-committee composed of Senators Jones, Daniel and Turpie, with Governors Stone and Altgeld, three Senators and two Governors making a full hand, called on the executive committee of the National Committee at the Palmer House at noon as empowered by the bimetallic conference Tuesday night and demanded that the National Committee select a man for temporary chairman of the convention who, if not a radical silver man, would at least be acceptable to the silver element, which is determined that no man shall be named as temporary chairman who is likely to make such an opening speech as shall misrepresent the silver delegates, cause dissension in the convention and arouse the indignation of silver men throughout the country. The executive committee of the National Committee in reply claimed the authority to name the temporary chairman but consented to consult the silver men before doing so.

To-night the silver men express themselves as satisfied with the outlook in every particular except as to candidates. As to that, all men are at sea.

Senator Blackburn Arrives.

Chicago, July 1.—Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is among the recent arrivals. He was in conference during the greater part of the day with silver delegates from all parts of the country. The Senator declines to discuss the situation beyond expressing his satisfaction at the prospects of an unquestionable silver majority in the convention. Col. Phil Thompson, who accompanies Senator Blackburn, says the Senator will unquestionably be placed in nomination, but that it is not yet determined by whom the nominating speech will be made.

May Be Bland and Boies.

Chicago, Ill., July 1.—It looks like to-day another son of old Kentucky will be called to the leadership of his party, for if Richard Parks Bland is not a safe leader in the presidential derby, then all signs go for nothing. It now seems almost certain that he will be given first place on the ticket. It is said here to-day by those in a position to know, that Hon. Horace Boies will be willing to accept the second place on the ticket, and it now looks like Bland and Boies.

Tickets for the Convention.

Chicago, July 1.—The Executive Committee of the National Democratic Convention has arranged for the following distribution of convention tickets:

Each delegate and alternate to be admitted; each delegate to have five additional tickets; each member of the National Committee to have fifty tickets; 1,000 tickets to be given to the press outside of the working members; 500 to the Grand Army, and 1,000 to the people of Chicago.

On to Washington Tuesday July 7th.

Those who expect to go to Washington to the Christian Endeavor meeting, should arrange to go via the famous Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. Special trains will run from Louisville and Cincinnati. Mr. W. A. Wilgus, S. P. A., C. & O. Ry., will accompany the Louisville special, and will give all information regarding the route, and show the people around Washington. He is well acquainted with every place of interest and all who go via the C. & O., may expect a grand and instructive trip, with every attention and possible courtesy. Write or wire to W. A. Wilgus, Hopkinsville, Ky., for your sleeping car reservations.

Lee Carter, fatally hurt in a runaway accident at Smith's Grove, died from his injuries Tuesday.

JUMPED THE TRACK.

THE "CANNON BALL" DERAILED TUESDAY NIGHT AT SLAUGHTERSVILLE.

Hopkinsville People on Board But None of Them Hurt—Four Persons Injured.

Slaughtersville, July 1, 1:30 a. m.—At 12:15 this morning No. 54, North-bound passenger on the L. & N., due at Henderson at 12:52, met with a very damaging accident at the South end of the side track about 150 yards South of the depot at this place. If the train had been going at a very rapid gait, there is no telling what the extent of the damage would have been. There were lying on the track several head of cattle and the engine plunged into them killing two cows and throwing the entire train, including the engine and seven cars, from the track.

The following parties were hurt:

A. JACQUES, St. Louis. Badly bruised about face and legs. Will recover.

JOHN PHELPS, Brownsville, Ky. Hips bruised. Will recover.

LOUISA RAINES, colored. Back twisted and sprained. Not seriously hurt.

A. R. McEWEN, Nashville. Slightly cut about head and face. Will recover.

The train was in charge of Engineer Henry Satterfield and Conductor Kelley. Shortly after passing the siding a few hundred yards North of this place, the train traveling at the rate of nearly sixty miles an hour, dashed into a bunch of cattle lying asleep on the track.

At the siding is an embankment about twenty feet high which was built to keep the tracks out of the water, which formerly flooded the road-bed. When the cattle were struck the engine passed over the bodies in safety. Not so with the rest of the train. The first car behind the engine carried the United States mail, with two messengers. It left the track and rolling completely over several times, fell on its side at the bottom of the embankment. Neither of the messengers was hurt.

Behind the mail car was a baggage car, then came the express car, a smoker, day coach and St. Louis sleeper. All left the track and piled up alongside the mail coach. The sleeper and day coach, bound for Chicago, alone of all the train except the engine remained on the rails.

The list as given above covers all cases except slight shakeups. The Hopkinsville and Madisonville base ball clubs were on the train, but none of the players were injured. A tramp who was riding the "blind baggage" escaped with minor injuries.

HON. E. P. CAMPBELL.

Death of the President of the Bank of Hopkinsville.

Hon. E. P. Campbell, President of the Bank of Hopkinsville, and a leading lawyer of Western Kentucky, died Tuesday, of Bright's disease, aged 64 years. He had been in failing health for several months and while his death was sudden and unexpected it created no surprise.

Mr. Campbell was one of Hopkinsville's most prominent and useful citizens. He enjoyed the fullest confidence of his neighbors and was universally regarded as a man of the highest integrity. He practiced law in connection with his bank work and ranked among the best lawyers at the local bar.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Hon. Edward P. Campbell was born in Caldwell county, Ky., October 21, 1832, his parents being Samuel and Lucy Wilcox Campbell. His father was of Scotch-Irish parentage, and came to Christian county from Pennsylvania, when about 17 years old. He located fifteen miles West of Hopkinsville, where he was married to a Miss Johnson. After her death he married Miss Lucy Wilcox. Of four children of this marriage E. P. Campbell was the oldest. He was reared on a farm and received a liberal education, principally at Cumberland college. In 1855 he began the study of law under Judge Geo. B. Cook, of Princeton, and in 1856 was admitted to practice, at Princeton. In 1860 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney, serving in that capacity for eight years. He was elected in 1871 to the State Senate, but resigned in 1872. He was married in 1858 to Miss Caroline Taylor, a native of Jefferson county, Ky. Six sons and one daughter were the fruits of this union. All but one of the sons are still living. Edward and Walter, the two older sons, are prominent insurance men in Chicago. Miss Bessie, the only daughter, graduated from college last year, and is one of the reigning belles of Hopkinsville. The younger sons are all in this city.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence yesterday morning, by Rev. J. N. Prestridge, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of which Mr. Campbell was a member. Interment at Hopewell Cemetery.

WILGUS GETS A RAISE.

Hopkinsville's Postmaster Given a $100 Increase.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—The thirteenth annual readjustment of presidential postmasters' salaries has just been completed and will take effect to-morrow. In the readjustment of salaries the presidential postmasters in Kentucky will receive an increase per year in their pay as follows:

Kentucky—Winchester advance from third to second class, an increase of $200. Increase of $100: Ashland, Cloverport, Clinton, Cynthia, Elkton, Frankfort Georgetown, Hopkinsville, Louisville, Mayfield, Mt. Sterling, Nicholasville, Richmond, Stanford. Morganfield, increase of $200. Decrease of 100: Bowling Green, Covington, Lawrenceburg and Newport.

Christian Endeavor.

Quite often is the charge brought against Christian Endeavors that it takes the interest of the young people away from their own church and denomination, and puts it in an organization not under control of the church, and not contributing to its advancement. As every one who is acquainted with Christian Endeavor and its methods, knows this charge is based on the ignorance of the general public in regard to the true spirit of the society. The society not only does not take away their interest in the church, but imparts to the young a lively concern for the welfare of their own denomination and has done more toward promoting church loyalty than any other agency of modern times. "The constitution of every model society provides that the pastor shall be, ex officio, a member of the executive committee, and that difficult questions shall be laid before him and the members of the session for advice and decision. Any society will, if desired by its church, and many societies do already, bring their newly elected officers before the session of the church for ratification. Any church that does this secures the most perfect oversight of the society by the church. These ties should be made just as strong and intimate as any church desires."

The Kentucky Editors.

Brunswick, Ga., June 30.—The Kentucky editors were royally entertained by the citizens of Brunswick to-day with a boat ride up the bay and the demonstration of Col. Good-year's process of deepening the channel. There was a banquet at the Oglethorpe in the afternoon with toasts by Brunswick gentlemen and the editors, after which came a carriage drive about the city. The association will leave in special coaches this evening at 8:15 over the Southern.

Resolutions were adopted at an informal meeting at the Oglethorpe to request the Executive Committee to select Middlesborough as the next meeting place.

Struck by an Engine.

Henry Lewis, a colored hackdriver, had a very narrow escape from death Wednesday morning. While the L. & N. south bound local was doing some switching near the Ninth street crossing, Louis attempted to drive across the track. His vehicle was struck by the engine and demolished. The horses were thrown to the ground, but not seriously hurt. Lewis went down with the wreck, and came out without being hurt.

Kimbell Captured.

Detective R. H. Coffey arrested Ben Kimbell at Guthrie Tuesday. Kimbell is wanted at Clarksville for shooting with intent to kill. He refused to return to Tennessee without requisition papers and is being held at Guthrie until the legal transfer documents arrive.

McCullum Acquitted.

Kuttawa, June 30.—At the trial to-day Marshal McCullum who killed Mrs. Johns was acquitted on the ground of self defense.

From the best information we can obtain the report that a female horse thief, who afterwards committed suicide in the Dixon jail, had been captured in Webster county was a canard. The people of Dixon and Webster county known nothing of any such case.—Morganfield Sun.
