

Monday, June 29

94

ENGAGEMENTS

MEMORANDA

8.30 Up early, Sleep unusually, much of day
 9.00 is by the heat, not able to do much
 9.30 Even reading is hard to do, +.
 10.00 Spent the day trying to rally my strength,
 10.30 Reading some from "Following the Piquetas"
 11.00 in Africa - also from "The Long Road to 11.30 Bagdad. I am a marvel to myself in my
 12.00 love of war literature, way back yonder
 12.30 I read Lord Roberts' diary of 31 yrs in India.
 1.00 and so through the years the story of war.
 1.30 struggle - Plans of battles & always
 2.00 interest me - and thrill me - I see now
 2.30 my early passion to go to West-Point,
 3.00 Ah how I thank thee for shutting the door
 3.30 shut, and opening it to the ministry,
 4.00 What a ruin I might have been!!
 4.30 want to lead my early, unguided
 5.00

Appeal, Supersedeas, Release of Attachment or Injunction, and all other bonds required by defendants.

Tuesday, June 30

94

ENGAGEMENTS

MEMORANDA

8.30 So hot through the night. Hard to keep cool.
 9.00 Clouds since 3 P.M. but no rain up to 8 P.M.
 9.30 Heavy rain to the South & S. E. - which
 10.00 has cooled the air. - Hard to do any work.
 10.30 Got the Pastor's "Pracher" by Dwight. It is
 11.00 after his own style - fresh, stimulating
 11.30 wordy - and many new words. Which 12.00 he delights to bring in. - #
 12.30 Following the Piquetas some -
 1.00 Long Road to Bagdad, some -
 1.30 Will try to rest up tonight - and be in
 2.00 better shape tomorrow.
 2.30 Particularly lonesome tonight. - Then on times
 3.00 when Lizzie was such a joy to me. We
 3.30 could talk or not & I could tell her my
 4.00 soul, what a loss after such years of
 4.30 closest companionship!! God only knows
 5.00 the heartache!! - "Come Lord & stay with"

Workmen's Compensation and Public Liability Insurance for Manufacturers and Contractors.