Stampede.—Last night, after the horses for Col. Jacobs' cavalry regiment had arrived at their camp, near Eminence, a general stampede took place among them, tearing down fences, running through fields, and in the woods. A larger portion of them were captured, but not all. Two men were hurt in trying to get out of the way. It is a wonder that more were not hurt, as they were lying in the amphitheater, through which most of the horses ran.

☞An Irish woman, of unusual size, made her appearance, last evening, in front of Hospital No. 6. She immediately began an attack upon the guards who were on duty, when she was repulsed. She rallied, surrounded by a thousand urchins (more or less), when officer Henry Greene, with reinforcements, surrounded her and took her prisoner.

Military Arrests.—Joel Hambleton, John Jones, John Blaford and James Goff were brought up from Daviess county, on Saturday night, and committed to the Military Prison. Geo. W. Twidwell, H. B. Bullinger, Wm. Bannon, W. H. Shackelford, and P. A. Lacomb, arrested by order of Colonel Bruce, were also imprisoned.

More Wheat.—Two very heavy trains laden with wheat came in Sunday, over the Louisville and Lexington Railroad. A train of cars started out Sunday night for more. The freight business on this road is enormous, and increasing.

Beautiful Swords.—We noticed, yesterday, two magnificent silver mounted swords at our friend Mr. H. H. Hirschbuh's, on Main, above Third street. They were imported by him. Call and look at them if you wish to examine some thing fine.

☞We are glad to learn that young Hornbeck, who had his leg amputated at the Provost Hospital a day or two ago, is doing very well.

☞We learn that our friend, Capt. O. P. Myers, is recruiting a company for Col. Woodruff's regiment. Success attend you Captain.

☞We are glad to notice that several of our principal streets are being newly curbed and repaved. They have needed it for sometime.

Fayette County.—Fayette county, Ind., has furnished six companies to the war—four of infantry and two of cavalry.

☞Several mad dogs have been killed in the upper portion of the city within the past day or two.

☞Thanks to Scott Glore for favors. Scott has all the late papers at his depot.

☞We thank Adams & Co.'s Express Messengers for the latest papers.

Prisoners.—The train from Bowlinggreen last night, brought up fifty-six prisoners, who were trying to make their way to Morgan. They were caught in Edmonson county, 2½ miles from Mammoth Cave, where they were attacked by a company of Home Guards, thirty-five in number. Their captain and some eight or ten men were killed or wounded, and the remainder captured. The company of rebels originally numbered seventy, with about twenty guns, and some horses. Among them is a boy some thirteen years old, son of John Brown, of this city, who had been led astray. They express a desire to take the oath of allegiance.

Capts. A. S. Mercer and F. M. Hodge, in command of Home Guards, were the parties who had the skirmish, and they came up in charge of the prisoners. About an hour after the fight they were reinforced by Capt. Wortham, and Capts. Walker and Ross arrived in the morning, the fight having occurred at night. The list embraces fifty-six, whose names we give below:

J Kinghton, F W Greenwood, J R Ripstone, G H Pittitte, H C Mcdiasson, James L. Rhodes, H W Klingrith, H B Greenwell, R. King, T L Loydwall, G S. Doo man, F T Clark, J Shinn, G F Greenwood, T S Greenwell, F P Sanders, T D Sheets, G Wright, R C Lewis, B L Osborn, J J Brown, G A Hockman, L T Daily, J Drewry, D Bennett, T H Payne, F Watts, J Braham, W R Pollihore, W Checklin, J W Speink, M R Taylor, E Reed, A Lealy, T E Hardaway, C M Stittle, J M Robinson, R T Sutton, T Birch, C Rhodes, B T Kendell, D R Weedman, D R Wellett, W B Walker, J D Jones, I Spilman, E Beard, A Claycomb, J W Anderson, R J Humphreys, D B Taylor, B R Philpott, J W Gibson, S B Clarkson, J Gardiner, F M Sith.

Accident.—Yesterday afternoon, a man named Hoffman, living on Jackson street, who was intoxicated, was driving a one horse wagon up Jefferson street, below Sixth, when the horse started and ran off. The wagon struck the curbing, below Centre street, throwing Hoffman and his little daughter (who was with him), both out. The little girl had her leg seriously injured, and was otherwise bruised—he having his nose broken. A physician dressed their wounds immediately. Officer Junot sent them home in charge of another person. The wagon struck the corner of the Crogan House, and lodged there. The horse was captured and sent home with the wagon.

Fifteenth Kentucky.—We call the attention of those desirous of enlisting in a splendid regiment to the advertisement of John W. Clarke, of the 15th Kentucky. Men are wanted to fill up this regiment, and they will have many advantages over new regiments. They will have officers of experience—they will be with soldiers who have had experience—they will go immediately into service, and their time will expire in about two years and three months. Fill up the Fifteenth.

Don't Do It.—We trust the Military Board, or Gov. Robinson, will instantly take measures that shall result in securing all the men who have enlisted or may enlist in the cavalry service for twelve months. We shall have need for all the cavalry that can be raised, were that twenty regiments instead of twelve; and we sincerely trust none will be refused. If they cannot be accepted under the orders from the War Department, let them be mustered into the State service—anything rather than to throw a damper on enlisting at this time.

Col. Jacobs' Regiment.—The Ninth Kentucky Cavalry is now ready for the field, with the exception of arms and camp equipage. The mustering was completed yesterday, and the regiment numbers 1,248 men. Eight companies raised for it were refused, and we learn that another arrived last night, by the Nashville Railroad. Cannot Governor Robinson make some arrangement by which Col. Jacobs will be permitted to raise a brigade? He would be able to number three regiments by the 1st of September.

☞The theater was not as well filled last night as we expected. The performances were excellent. Mr. Macauly played excellent. The Flying Dutchman will be repeated this evening. Go and you will spend a pleasant evening. Miss Kate Foster, the popular commedienne, will have a bouncing benefit to-morrow evening. We are satisfied she will be complimented with what she deserves—a full and fashionable audience.

Is the City.—The distinguished Major General Lew Wallace arrived in New Albany, yesterday, and is in engaged in mustering the 66th regiment into the service. It is reported that the regiment will leave for Kentucky to-day, where their services are likely to be soon needed.

☞There were two arrivals and no departures at the military prison yesterday. J. F. Callaway and Ashton Garritt were arrested by a detachment of Colonel Jacobs' cavalry, charged with recruiting a company to go South. They were brought down on the Lexington train last night.

A New Song.—D. P. Faulds, Esq., has just issued a comic song for the times, embellished with a life-size portrait of the "Loyal black," entitled, "I can't help dat—tain't my fault." Get a copy and try it, and you'll find it—"Tain't my fault."

Accident.—A coffee house keeper, named Metz, living on Market street above Third, had his leg broken, by falling from a buggy yesterday. He was returning from a pic-nic when the accident occurred. He was doing well late last night.

☞About one hundred of Col. Boone's Twenty-eighth Regiment, who were paroled by Morgan at Gallatin a few days ago, went to Camp Chase yesterday. We are unable to furnish their names to our readers.

☞Officer Barnes, of the Tenth ward, took up a bay horse and mare, in Butchertown, yesterday. He can be found at the Bourbon House, where the owner can get all the information required, concerning them.

New Paper in Owensboro.—We have received No. 1 of the "Monitor," published in Owensboro, Kentucky, by Mr. Woodruff. It is a Union paper, and takes the place of the rebel organ called the Shield.

☞A large comet is visible to the naked eye at 9 o'clock, P. M., in the northern heavens, about 20° west of the Polar Star. A common opera glass affords a splendid view of the celestial visitor.

☞A lot of young fellows who were at a pic nic yesterday in buggies, indulged in a general race on their return. Consequence, tired horses, broken buggies. "Young men!—how come you so?"

☞Thanks to Messrs. Gosnell & Scott for a "copious supply" of their excellent ice.

☞Lieut. McHarry will have his company of Provost Guard completed to-morrow.

Thanks.—To Mr. Nunemacher, of Adams Express, for St. Louis papers of yesterday.

Jefferson County Court.

Hon. Andrew Monroe Judge.

Monday, August 18, 1862.

Henry Goose qualified as constable in the Jeffersontown district; William Goose security.

N. B. Taylor procured certificate that he is a native of Canada.

Inventory of the estate of Jacob Shake, and list of the estate of Caroline Walker, filed for record.

Isabella Schnell moved to be released as security for Josephine Wages, administratrix of ——— Wages, and said Josephine being in court, gave bond, with Gorman Starr security.

The will of Henrich Reibsomun proved and admitted to record; Carl Grusch qualified as executor without security.

Rev. David Russell has license to solemnize the rite of matrimony.

Jacob Seif has license to peddle goods and merchandize within the State of Kentucky.

Baton Rouge.—Just as we expected, the reported capture of Baton Rouge by Breckinridge proves to be a lie. The "inexorable," assisted by Generals Lovell, Clark, and Allen, with five or six thousand troops and a strong force of artillery and cavalry, attacked Gen. Williams, in command of 2,500 troops, and met a signal repulse, so signal in fact, that according to his own dispatch he retreated ten miles. The rebels lost Gen. Lovell, killed, Gen. Allen mortally wounded and captured, and Gen Clark, who gave himself up. Gen. Williams, in command at Baton Rouge, fighting like a hero, fell dead, and the command devolved upon Col. Cahill, who appears to have fought a glorious fight.

Twelfth Kentucky Cavalry.—This regiment, which has been accepted, is nearly full, and is the only cavalry regiment in Kentucky which has authority to receive new recruits. Its officers are Col. Q. C. Shanks, Lieutenant-Colonel N. L. Lightfoot; 1st Major, W. Kinney, of Henderson; 2d Major, Larkin J. Proctor, of Edmondson; and 3d Major, Eldred Pate. Young men who are desirous of entering the service of their country should, without delay, call at the recruiting stations of the regiment.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received till 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday, August 21, 1862, at the City Engineer's office, for completing the following work:

Grading and paving the sidewalks on the South side of Madison, from Preston to Jackson street.

Specification on file in said office; usual security required. J. M. Delph, Mayor.

☞We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, so long and favorably known in this community. Of its peculiar merits we have no desire to multiply words, and will append the opinion of one of our most noted and popular citizens, Hon. C. A. Wickliffe:

"Messrs. Sumner & Co.: I purchased one of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines about a year ago—it has given entire satisfaction. The amount of work which can be performed is very great, and it is a great labor saving machine. I regard it as a valuable improvement and invention. I prefer the machine to any I have seen, on account of its quietness, simplicity, speed and durability, and I do most sincerely recommend it to others.

"Yours respectfully,
"C. A. Wickliffe."

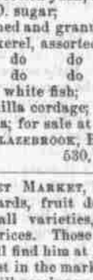
LEA & PERRINS' CELEBRATED WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS TO BE THE "ONLY GOOD SAUCE," and applicable to EVERY VARIETY OF DISH.



EXTRACT of a Letter from a MEDICAL GENTLEMAN At Madras, TO HIS BROTHER At Worcester.

May, 1851.

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable, as well as the most wholesome sauce that is made."

The above SAUCE is not only the best and most popular condiment known, but the most Economical, as a few drops in Soup, Gravy, or with Fish, hot and cold Joints, Beef Steak, Game, &c., impart an exquisite zest, which unprincipled Sauce manufacturers have in vain endeavored to imitate.

On the Breakfast, Luncheon, Dinner or Supper Table, a cruet containing "LEA & PERRINS WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE" is indispensable.

To appreciate the excellent qualities of this delicious preparation it is only necessary to purchase a small bottle of the genuine, of a respectable grocer or dealer, as many Retail and Wholesale proprietors seldom place the Pure Sauce before their guests, but substitute a genuine Bottle filled with a spurious mixture.

For Sale by Grocers and Pickmen everywhere.
