Mrs. Dan B. Day, 64 Is Called From Time

Mrs. Dan B. Day, 64, was call- ed from this life on Mon- day as the result of a mis sion of three months. She was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Day of Dennison, Ky., and to this happy union were born nine children, eight of whom survived.

She was the wife of R. L. Day of Letcher, Ky., and to this union were born five children, four of whom survived.

The funeral service was held at the office of Mrs. W. W. Day of Letcher, Ky., for which Mrs. W. W. Day of Letcher, Ky., was charge of the last rites.

Snow Blankets Eastern Kentucky

As the eagle goes to press Eastern Kentucky is being visited by another snowstorm. This makes the third snow of the season so far and for the historic winter of 1884.

However, there seems to be an exception to this rule in that the delaying the bod ics and snow of the past three winters has once more insuring a fruitful crop of 1884.

Six Persons Reported Dead After Flood

Reports coming in from last week indicate that at least six lives were lost in Kent ucky.

The North Fork, Cum bergson, lost four men and one woman, all of whom were reported drowned in the river.

In Letcher county many citi zens stood up and watched the flood water in the river.

As this is written, however, there are reports that ten more have gotten back to normal and the number of dead has increased as great as had been expected.

TWO ARMS POSTS NAPOLEON CENTER FOR OFFICERS

Fort Knox, Ky., and Camp Crit tery, Ky., have been developed as two of the major posts for the Regular Army. The two establishments are located near the States of Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, and Kentucky.

Appointments will be made from the candidate who gets the best up to and inclusive Mather.

Correction

In last week's Eagle an article was published stating that a man named Hall was dead. The article stated that he had been killed in a train accident. It was later learned that the man was still alive and that he was in a hospital.

GI's Head Protests On Congressmen

On Congressmen

In a recent article, GI protests were mentioned which were written by (last name) of the world's press, and it was mentioned in several papers, even the Southern ones.

The protest was signed by more than 500 GI's who threatened to storm Congress if their demands were not met. The demands included a continuation of the draft law.

Congressmen have been receiving a lot of criticism lately, and a lot of it has been from GI's. The protests are getting more frequent as the war goes on.

Eisenhower Urges Discharges

In a recent article, Eisenhower has urged for the discharge of all conscientious objectors. He stated that it is necessary to have the men who are opposed to war in order to continue the war.

In a joint statement, Eisenhower and other military leaders have called for the discharge of all conscientious objectors.

Congressmen have been receiving a lot of criticism lately, and a lot of it has been from GI's. The protests are getting more frequent as the war goes on.

Court House Gets New Facelift

This week the Letcher courthouse is being given a paint job as well as a new set of windows.

Eisenhower says current criticism of draft officials is unfounded.

In a recent article, Eisenhower has stated that the draft officials are performing their duties in a proper manner.

The courthouse is scheduled to be completed by the end of the month.

Explosion Kills 14 Miners in West Va.

In a recent explosion in a mine in West Virginia, 14 miners lost their lives. The cause of the explosion is still under investigation.

A COAL OPERATORS AGREE TO INSURANCE

At least half of the coal output of Southern Appalachian Coal Operators will be insured in the future by workers' compensation insurance, it has been reported.

In a recent meeting, the operators agreed to a new insurance program for their employees.

American Legion

American Legion Post 104

In a recent article, a new post of the American Legion was established in Kentucky. The post is named to honor a war hero from the area.

The post will be located in the town of Ashland and will be under the leadership of Major General J. H. Miller.

Road Building Machinery Is Now Available

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 15—Surplus federal equipment de ported for use in the war effort is being col lected for use by various agencies and organizations. The collection includes road-building machinery which has been collected for use.

A hardworking volunteer, John Smith, was appointed to the collection committee.

Government officials have expressed their appreciation for the patriotism and hardwork ing spirit of the people.

Election Day: A Day of the People

In a recent article, election day was described as a day of the people. The article stated that it is a day of democracy and freedom, and that it is a day to remember the sacrifices of the past.

The article went on to say that election day is a day to express one's vote and to be a part of the democratic process.