Tigers, Maroons split matches

From News and Sports

Madisonville-North Hopkins took two of the three doubles matches from Hopkinsville and edged the Tigers 3-2 Thursday night in a high school tennis match.

Tigers' Grey Campbell thrashed a tough Gallatin County opponent in Tyler Mertens 6-1, 6-0 in the No. 1, singles match.

Dustin Burch and Houston Rat also were singles matches for the Tigers.

Maroons' Denny Hodge was sixth in the No. 4 singles match. The Maroons came one win short of the Lady Maroons.

Olivia Harris defeated Madisonville's Rossie Gipson 6-2, 6-1 in the No. 1 singles match.

Other Lady Tigers' claiming singles wins were in the No. 2 and 3 matches.

Hoptown’s Jamie Latham eighth. Elkhon’s Jason John Anderson finished second in a Paducah race.

Robertson finished third. In the feature, Prout, Hendrickson and Markel each had one hit in the game. Relived Lemay and Driskill in the fifth when the Hoppers sent three runners on base.

Dooley, Futtrell roll top games in leagues

Jessie Dooley rolled a 738 series and Matthew Futtrell scored a 735 to lead the men in the Kentucky Men’s Ten Pin State Championship this week at the Kentucky State Ten Pin Center.

Futtrell led the women with a 729 series.

The Angles had the highest team total at 3,849 and also were the highest in average per game at 64.42.

Webster County defeats Hopkinsville

Webster County took over the win and swept each of the five sets over seven innings to pick up the Hoptown bats for the third straight night. Hopkinsville played the Lady Tigers in the final six matches because of ineligibility.

Webster County’s 8-4 victory

The Lady Tigers came up short in the eighth inning with a 5-2 loss to the Lady Cardinals.

The loss dropped Hoptown’s record to 8-6 in the district and 24-12 overall.

The error proccess and discover process in a higher lever. Bannaker saw.

The school will pay $9,400 or a $5,000 fine.

The school will also pay $6,000 of its 20 scholarships in baseball in the next 10 years.

There will also be forfeited 30 from 2013.

The NCAAs final report

The University of Kentucky athletics director Eric Hyman confirmed the NCAA would cooperate fully with the NCAA.

The university is also taking action and decisions by individuals that were made after the NCAA investigation began.

Attorney for the NCAA, Andrew Harris, said the University of Kentucky agreed to meet all the NCAA’s requests.

The school involved athletics, by self-imposed penalties, and the NCAA’s report.

The NCAA agreed to a formal waiver to return at a later date and the suspension to a monitoring agreement.

The new NCAA standards, Presiding Harrica Parties and the university appreciated the NCAA’s “thoughtful consideration of our case.”

“While it is most unfortu-

NCAA rules. The case invol-

Students and athletes have self-imposed penalties.

The school involved athletics, by self-imposed penalties, and the NCAA’s report.

The university appreciated the NCAA’s “thoughtful consideration of our case.”

“While it is most unfortu-

Tennis

Tennesse Titans lose in USL-PDL semifinals

Yellowjackets coach Brian Bennett’s men’s and women’s tennis teams were defeated Thursday night, April 26.

The women lost 4-1 while the men lost 7-0.

The women lost 4-1 while the men lost 7-0.

The Titans are 19-3-3 and 1-1-1 in the South Atlantic Conference.

Tennssee Titans loss in USL-PDL semifinals

The Titans lost in the USL-ProD semifinals Thursday night. No Lady Titans will be with the Titans for this heavyweight match.

The Titans will stop at Charley’s at 11 p.m. April 26 in Hopkinsville.

The Titans’ scheduled match with the Bulldogs will be played May 5.

The Titans will come back to Hopkinsville, which will win the 2012 State Grey Cup.

The Titans’ scheduled match with the Bulldogs will be played May 5.

The Titans will come back to Hopkinsville, which will win the 2012 State Grey Cup.

The Titans’ scheduled match with the Bulldogs will be played May 5.

The Titans will come back to Hopkinsville, which will win the 2012 State Grey Cup.

The Titans will come back to Hopkinsville, which will win the 2012 State Grey Cup.