FALLSBURG SUMMER NORMAL, FALLSBURG LAWRENCE COUNTY, KY. THE SUMMER NORMAL WILL BEGIN MAY 29TH, 1893, AND CONTINUE FOUR WEEKS.

Fallsburg is a small town, beautifully situated on the picturesque banks of Big Blaine, two miles west of Fuller's Station on the O. & B. S. Railroad.

The school building is commodious. The location is healthful and surroundings pleasant.

The total enrollment of the High School since January 9th is 104, about 50 of whom were boarders.

We have one of the best literary societies in the State. The object of the Normal is to PREPARE TEACHERS FOR EXAMINATIONS AND FOR THE PROFESSION OF TEACHING.

Highest branches without extra charge, if desired. If vocal music is taught there will be some extra tuition from those pursuing that study.

Prof. G. B. Carter will be in charge of the classes. He has a state certificate which he obtained when a student of the A. & M. College, and a first-class county certificate.

The undersigned has been the principal of the Enterprise Summer Normal for three successive summers, the last session of which was the most successful, the enrollment being larger than that of any other school in the State at that time.

No primary pupils will be admitted. Tuition $2.25 for the term of four weeks, payable strictly in advance.

GOOD BOARD AT $1.50 AND $2.00 per Week. G. B. CARTER, Secretary. J. G. TALBERT, Principal.
