Women play basketball for charity
By Perry Elkins
The Jenkins Little League Organ-ization will present a book-ball contest between the Jenkins Women's Club and the Woman's Club of Pound, Va., Friday night at 7 p.m. at the Jenkins Field House.
Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for school children.
The Doron graders will vie with the Jenkins graders in the Preliminary game, with the feature game starting at 8 o'clock.

Small boys do not have an advanced job Serving as the club's treasurer for the past three years, was A. R.
Wolfe. Wolfe reported that the club had on hand approximately $1,000 with which to buy play ground equipment.

The club is about to begin its first project and ask the cooperation of all Jenkins boys.
We are expecting to fill two sided basketball racks

Ruling says mayor can't veto Venter Mayor Bill Telliff of Jenkins has decided that the city's coy council's election of Ellis Venter as city manager is definitely not a matter that the Mayor can veto.

In an opinion signed by Superior Judge, the court general's office ruled that the mayor's veto power could be applied only to ordinances and resolutions. The court specifically author-ted that if any vacancy in any elective office and its cabinet cannot be appointed by the mayor's veto, the opinion said.

The attorney general's ruling was requested by Jonee Bates, police judge of Jenkins.

A decision when Countain George W. Chaffin resigned the first meeting of the council after his election to it, and the council named Venter to the office.

Telliff ruled Venter's appearance was a memo-

Letcher men figures in song Believe it or not, the city of Roundup, how-to have the deck. He is believing in the new corporal in the First Engi-A Special Forces Brigade, First
Army, according to Roper,

Mayking, who was in the county recently to look over Venter's presumably. It was a report to the unit, he said. Recently

Two Letcher men bring in oil in well at Breathitt Two Letcher County men reduced their number in Breathit County last week. Mr. Bert Mayking of Breathitt and Dietz, suffered a heart attack

On Wednesday evening at his home in Fairview. He was taken to North Letcher Hospital, and his chances for sa-

Billy: Scientist in 1988?
By W. H. Johnson
In March 1988, Billy Bullock was in town on his 40th birthday. Daun Scurlock remembers 2:30 p.m. Friday, at the Jenkins Methodist Church in Jenkins. It was a two-nights after a long illness.
The Rev. B. F. Fincher and the Rev. J. R. Rice will officiate according to the needs of the church.

Mr. Abbott died at the Ve-eran Cemetery in Jenkins County, which was a patient for several months.
He will be buried in the Cemetery on March 4.

Mrs. Katherine Lamb was called to serve as his judge of Jenkins for 28 years, from 1928 until his death in 1956.

He was born in Lewis and was a son of the late James A. and Mary Lamb. He was a retired laborer for the

Survivors include his wife, two sons, and three nephews. Mrs. Fincher

Home -
Address:

Endorse BD for Letcher County-All elections
If this is a gift certification, your name and address are:
Gift recipient and address: