

Quam dilecta

1875

How amiable to my earlings, Thou Lord & host. Thy soul hath drawn and longing to enter into courts of the Lord: my heart and my guitar shall with living strings of joy and praise to thee in house of thy glory. When thy courts, O Lord I will praise thee with a harp. Praise thee in the house of thy house thy glory appearing. Then shall I sing the praises of thy name in the house of thy glory.
The people are filled with thy praise.
Praise to the God of every man of Israel. O hosts: hear my prayer: hearken unto the voice of Jacob. Liketh O God defender and look upon the 7. and answer to

