Jenkins News

By Mrs. O. P. Park.

At the present writing Rev. A. D. Douglas is engaged in a revival service in the First Baptist Church of Longs, S.C., with Rev. Bong Evangelist, Joseph Brown, and Rev. L. H. Wester. The members present.

CLASS MEETING

Tuesday evening, Sept.-29th, School class held their regular monthly members present.

Program prepared by Virginia Hollyoak and Mary Lou Shubert.

Solo by Miss Mary Lou Buttery, Houstons, Misses Belle Smith and Mrs. Mattie Malick.

32 members were present in the class Sunday morning, Oct.-3rd.

Circle No. 3 met Monday evening, Oct. 2nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Furrer.

Mrs. Lillian Shepard and daughters Betty and Charlotte of Beckley, W. Va., keep the Eagle week end with friends in Jenkins.

Thursday afternoon at the Lakeside Club House, Mrs. Frank Parks, who is visiting with her father, Mr. W. C. Shearer, played two tables of bridge.

Margaret C. Mabie, Mrs. M. T. Perry, Mrs. Pearl Shively, Mrs. Martha Henry, Mrs. J. M. Stalder, Mrs. Fred Warner and Mrs. Oscar Parks were guests at Mrs. Parks.

Miss Sara Johnson of Burdine left last week for the University of Cincinnati.

H. H. Henry and Ivan Mullins were visiting with Van Lear, Saturday.

Augusta McGregor, U.N. and Pauline Clark, Gregery of New Jersey are visiting with Mrs. M. H. Furrer.

Sgt. James S. Barnes writes from bananas in Mississippi that he always reads and enjoys the Jenkins Local and Personnel in the Eagle and he is sure glad coming to his home, as he keeps in touch with home folks through its columns.

Same story was in South America until recently when he was sent on a mission and since he says he has been through many terrible happenings others "aren't so hot." He wants to say hello to the people he left there.

Ollie Dyer's friends. Ollie is stationed in the Army now, he was a good boy and he left a lot of friends behind.

Alvin Wilkes, E.M. writes friends in Jenkins he is having a great time in the military, hanging with wires on Pocahontas in plan to return to the Bluegrass, to see as much as he can to Jenkins.

Ple, Charlie L. Smith stationed in Oklahoma City has returned, to camp friends after three weeks and relatives with friends in Jenkins.

Major Alexander Lambing and wife, are visiting Liest. Lambing's brother in Grafton. They will return on Saturday.

Friends will remember Liest Lambing's brother, who has been a nurse in a hospital in Grafton, struggle and have been housed and fed by the grateful soldiers where Major Lambing was also stationed.

Consolidated Coal Company supervisory employees who reside in Jenkins have unofficially decided to formally organize a "labor union." Courses of a very comprehensive nature are being taken by several hundred workers in the afternoon in the Masonic Temple, with Major Lambing.

Mr. H. K. Forster, President, Western Division, the president of the Consolidated Coal Company, held the high point of the course, the benefit gained from them, stimulating the necessity of such planned training for the employees, and particularly essential in the employing and

Jenkins News

Obituaries:

Reported by craft funeral homes.

Mrs. Arthur Niece

Passed from time to her home in Jenkins February 25, 1944 after an illness of two months. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Niece of West Liberty, Ky., and was married to Mr. Arthur Niece in 1926, and to this union seven children were born. She was born in West Liberty, Ky., on March 20, 1909, being the only daughter of Mrs. Robert Niece in 1926, and to this union seven children were born. She was the oldest of the Niece family, leaving five sisters and two brothers.

She was survived by her parents, seven children, two sisters, five brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. James A. West was living with the family last week.

Funeral services were conducted at the Jenkins Masonic Temple, Rev. L. R. Wester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made at the Baptist Cemetary, Jenkins.

Rev. Frank Botts

Rev. Frank Botts, was tragically killed on the Pacific Coast recently. Mr. Botts was pastor of the First Baptist Church, Jenkins, and had come to the Pacific Coast to see his mother, Mrs. Nellie Botts, who lives in the San Francisco area. Mr. Botts was 32 years of age, and had served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He was married to Mrs. Botts, a member of the First Baptist Church, Jenkins, and had two children, two sisters, two daughters, and a host of relatives and friends.

Mr. Botts left Jenkins in September of this year and had not heard from his mother since then.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church, Jenkins, with Rev. L. R. Wester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church, Jenkins, with Rev. L. R. Wester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made at the Baptist Cemetery, Jenkins.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.

The family took a memorial service at the United States Naval Hospital, San Francisco, where Mr. Botts was taken.