Parents should be role models in life for their children.

O

children are looking for role models, and we think that these models should be the Spiritual leaders of our church, our in-law and our confreres.

But we do not realize that the first role models are our parents. “We are your house, we are the shadow of your house; therefore, perhaps our moral values are where they ought to be. If we have a bad tempers, our children will have a bad temper. If we are unfaithful to each other, we cannot expect our children to learn from us. If we do not love and cherish our children, we cannot expect our children to learn to do the same. These are the role models for our children.”

We have to ask our selves what kind of models our children will follow their footsteps as they get older. If we love God, if we show respect and love to our parents, our children will follow us when we are much older. If we are hardworking people, they will certainly learn from us.

Our way of living speaks louder than words but hot seem a believing, Jehovah God calls us in Rev. 2:5: “I know your works, they are neither hot nor cool, they are tepid.”

We have to be passionate for God, some will say, “I sow” and others say,

“Who will reap?”

We give you today are to be on your hearts.

Deuteronomy 6:5-9

"You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk on the road, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontals before your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your houses, and on your gates."

The Rev. Francisco V. Llerena is pastor of First Hispanic Baptist Church in Carrollton, Ky. 41008, (502) 732-8886. The Rev. Drew Gossett is his assistant. For more information, visit http://firsthispanicbaptistchurch.com.

(Continued from Page 4)