MILLSTONE:

Mrs. Kiser discovers that a March sunset can be a thing to behold; Mrs. Nan Bentley improves

By MABEL KISER

Here we are well into March and the winter winds are still with us. I love the wind, when it doesn't blow into a storm that is, I love to see the leaves swirl and tumble about. The old leaves left on the trees from last year are making room for a new life, the eternal cycle, which is ever new and beautiful and mysterious. God thought of everything when He made this earth. The very new and living cycle of continuing of every living thing reproducing itself. The heart of an acorn contains the beginning of a mighty oak. And every living thing returns to enrich the earth. Everything man needs is secreted within the earth. The dress or coat you wear was once either wool on a sheep's back, cotton growing in the field, or some synthetic fabric from coal, flax or some other mineral. Every bit of furniture within any building was once either a tree growing in the forest or some other substance from the soil. Every bite of food you eat comes either directly or indirectly from the soil. All the medicine that the doctor gives his patient is from herb growing in the field, or indirectly from the soil. But our wise creator fixed it so that we must do some work to enjoy the finished product. Few things may be usable as it, it must be wrought upon by many hands that must be put to a cotton dress between the farmer's sewing the cotton in the field and the purchasing of the dress from the retailer. And in between, God alone can make the cotton grow. Just as God alone can create the human heart but before it can truly worship it makes it must be wrought upon. It takes His good hand to make the creature a fit subject to serve a King like Him.

Blaine and I were very happy this week to receive a letter from an old friend and former neighbor, Mrs. Columbus (Polly Ann) Meade, of Jackson Ohio. She had been here for a visit with her Aunt Sarah Jane Franklin and also had attended a birthday dinner for her father, Maryland Bates, who reared his family on Millstone but since moved to Jonancy. February 25 he celebrated his 85th birthday by having a good dinner prepared by his wife, Dixie. There to enjoy the day with him were his two daughters, Mrs. Polly Ann Bates Meade from Jackson, Ohio; Mrs. Rachel Berry from Florence, Ky.; and three step-children Charlotte, Teresa and Francis Little. Happy Birthday and may you have many more. Despite his 85 summers of hard work, Mr. Bates is still spry and mentally alert.

Letcher County, but of Eastern Kentucky. Of the nine only three survive. Uncle Newt Bentley of Democrat. Uncle Newt married the late Nannie Martin, daughter of Allen Martin, sister to the late Alex Martin, father of SHERA Martin on Millstone. He is the father of Florence Bentley and Mrs. Ray (Verna) Bowen all of Democrat. During the great flu epidemic of around 1918 they lost three children who were all buried the same day. A daughter died some time later. Only the two girls survive, his wife died sometime ago.

Archie Martin is still in the Whitesburg Hospital but is somewhat improved. Recent visitors to see him were his sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie (Gretti) Bennett and their daughter; Teresa Lynn from Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar (Ruth Ann) Allen and their sons; Jeffery and Timothy also from Louisville.

Manerva Bentley married a Pigman and they live at Hindman. I remember that her first husband was a Sergeant and they had a son, Leonard. Martha Bentley, widow of the late Cannon Hall, mother of Marvin Hall and Mrs. Ollie Cook all of Deane. Sherman Bentley married Ada Sergeant, daughter of the late Dave Sergeant of Indian Creek near Democrat. He died many years ago and his wife died hardly two years later. Besides the five girls pictured there were two sons, Buster (John) Bentley, Bernice Noble, Cleveland, Ohio; Billie Bentley, of Neon and Charlene McElroy of Millstone. Maggie Mason, who is now very ill, lost her husband years ago in a mine accident, they had several children, Otis Mason of Millstone, Okie Mason of Cleveland; Roy, Homer, Ruby or Cleveland; Irene of Columbus, Ohio; Dennis Mason of Florida; Clara Halcomb and Bernice Storms of Ohio and Jo Ann Sturgill of Millstone.

Archie Martin is still in the Whitesburg Hospital but is somewhat improved. Recent visitors to see him were his sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie (Gretti) Bennett and their daughter; Teresa Lynn from Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar (Ruth Ann) Allen and their sons; Jeffery and Timothy also from Louisville. The picture last week of the lovely daughters of the late Sherman Bentley looked so like many of their children and their children's children today. Mr. Bentley was one of the nine children of Uncle Riley Bentley who died several years ago at age 100 or 101. The Bentleys were a fine old pioneering family of not only

Birtha married Willard Hall. They live at Rockhouse and have several children including Mrs. Earnest (Opal) Adams (wife of our Letcher County Jailor). Bonnie, Mason, Dale, Edna Davis, Henry Claym Oval Profit, Vernon, Mildred Burton, Bradley, Willard Jr. B.J. All of Indianapolis and Paul of Texas. Ollie married Sam Wright who died many years ago. Mrs. Wright is the mother of June Martin, Democrat; Leslie North Carolina; Leonard Wright
