ANTITUBERCULOSIS FIGHT IS OUTLINED.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kentuckiana Tuberculosis Association for the purpose of hearing reports of the past season was held in the Louisville home of Dr. George E. Folsom, president of this organization. The meeting was called to order by Captain V. H. Sandusky, secretary treasurer of the association, who read the minutes of the previous meeting. Captain Sandusky then proceeded to read the annual report of the association for the past season. The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

CAPTAIN W. H. SANDUSKY.

Well Known Hotel Man Passes Away At Horse Branch.

Capt. W. H. Sandusky died at his home in Horse Branch early Monday morning. He had been ill for several days and was expected to recover. The funeral services were held at the White House, a short distance from his home. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, president of this organization. The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

SENIOR TELLER.

Mr. Evans, the senior teller of the Bank of Louisville, has been ill for several days and was expected to recover. The funeral services were held at the White House, a short distance from his home. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, president of this organization. The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

QUARTETTY COURT.

What has been a very interesting development of late in the home branch, and has received much public attention, is the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, of this organization. The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

SMALLBOYS.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, of the home branch, have been appointed to the position of special tellers. They were chosen by the board of directors because of their experience and knowledge of the business.

The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

UNG SCHOOLS.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, of the home branch, have been appointed to the position of special tellers. They were chosen by the board of directors because of their experience and knowledge of the business.

The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

HARDY LODGE.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, of the home branch, have been appointed to the position of special tellers. They were chosen by the board of directors because of their experience and knowledge of the business.

The report showed that the association had made a profit of $5,000 for the past season, and that the association was in a position to carry forward the work of the coming year.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19—This class in the Young Citizens' School was visited by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Folsom, of the home branch, who were chosen by the board of directors because of their experience and knowledge of the business.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19. To-day: Plans to put a Silo, a Home, and a Swimming Pool on the grounds of the Kentuckiana Tuberculosis Association.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19. To-day: Plans to put a Silo, a Home, and a Swimming Pool on the grounds of the Kentuckiana Tuberculosis Association.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19. To-day: Plans to put a Silo, a Home, and a Swimming Pool on the grounds of the Kentuckiana Tuberculosis Association.

A family man and a good citizen, he was well loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in the community. The family and friends were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19. To-day: Plans to put a Silo, a Home, and a Swimming Pool on the grounds of the Kentuckiana Tuberculosis Association.