ACTC Graduation Ceremony 2023

The 2023 ACTC Graduation Ceremony was held at the Paramount Theatre on Saturday, May 6. The ceremony saw 54 students from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System’s ACTC campus receive their degrees. The students included those from various disciplines, including fine arts, education, and health sciences.

The ceremony started with the presentation of awards. The highest award of the day was the President’s Medal, which was presented to Keisha L. Humphreys, a student in the Art & Design program. The President’s Medal is given to the student who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and leadership.

The next award was the President’s Award for Academic Excellence, which was given to Dr. John M. Duvall, the President of ACTC. The award recognizes the exceptional contributions of the college’s president.

Other awards included the President’s Award for Community Service, which was given to a group of students who volunteered their time and efforts to community organizations. The award recognizes the importance of community service and the role that students can play in making a difference.

The ceremony also included the presentation of the President’s Award for ExCEL (Excellence in College Leadership), which was given to a group of students who demonstrated exceptional leadership in their roles as student leaders. The award recognizes the importance of leadership development and the role that students can play in shaping the future of the college.

The ceremony concluded with the presentation of the President’s Award for Outstanding Achievement, which was given to a group of students who demonstrated outstanding academic and personal achievements. The award recognizes the importance of recognizing and celebrating the achievements of our students.

Congratulations to all the graduates and their families. The ACTC community is proud of your accomplishments and wishes you all the best in your future endeavors.
