The winners at the Lexington Convention Center. Dining on the last Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Elton, and Alice Henry, second.

In Europe—Olivia Maggard,

D. Maggard, is going to school in Europe this summer. She will be visiting Italy, Switzerland,

France and England. The and Clayoquoll of Whitesburg are roommates. The girls are on the Foreign Language League program with 15 students from Downtown.

festive volunteers spending fishing parties for friends who were traveling from Dayton to

New York City. They were

Hannah Ammer-

nana, formerly of Whitesburg.

Mary Lomax and Jim

Knoblock. Miss Hay's Day of

was also included in the party.

Miss Kay Daniel left Saturday
to join a group from Tempa-

University for a trip of eleven countries of Eu-

urope. Miss Daniel is working toward her master's degree in education and along with her fellow students and teachers will study the customs and language of the various countries.

Among those who are here

because of the serious illness

of Mrs. Jacobson of Sandstone

are Bob Reese, Mrs. and

Michael Nunez of Greenfield.

Linda Frazell is a guest of the Southside Baptist Church,

hers.

and Madrid, Texas.

Residences.

Chester Holstein, Mrs. D. Holstein, and Judge Holstein.

The community of Louisville are here

this week visiting parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F.

Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. Laura

Hammond.

Mary Adams, son, of Mr. and

Mrs. Melvin Adams of Hunton-

and, V. T., formerly of Car-

Charles, were in Charlestown

to celebrate this summer with a group of students from Colom-

The Wednesday morning event enrolled was held at the home of

2. In addition to the music minister's wife, Mrs. Allen Mitchell.

Among those who are its

Ernest Trooper and Mr. Fred

Gooden; the late Tom Jones,

Albert Jones, Mrs. L. M. Hoye,

Billy Reese, Mrs. Susan Reese,

Cecil Webb and the guest of

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Adams had as break

fishing parties for friends who

were traveling from Dayton to

New York City. They were

Hannah Ammer-

nana, formerly of Whitesburg.

Mary Lomax and Jim

Knoblock. Miss Hay's Day of

was also included in the party.

Miss Kay Daniel left Saturday
to join a group from Tempa-

University for a trip of eleven
countries of Eu-

urope. Miss Daniel is working

toward her master's degree in

education and along

with her fellow students and
teachers will study the customs

and language of the various

countries.

Among those who are here

because of the serious illness

of Mrs. Jacobson of Sandstone

are Bob Reese, Mrs. and

Michael Nunez of Greenfield.

Linda Frazell is a guest of

the Southside Baptist Church,

hers.

and Madrid, Texas.

Residences.

The community of Louisville are here

this week visiting parents and

grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F.

Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. Laura

Hammond.

Mary Adams, son, of Mr. and

Mrs. Melvin Adams of Hunton-

and, V. T., formerly of Car-

Charles, were in Charlestown

to celebrate this summer with a
group of students from Colom-

The Wednesday morning event enrolled was held at the home of

2. In addition to the music minister's wife, Mrs. Allen Mitchell.

Among those who are its

Ernest Trooper and Mr. Fred

Gooden; the late Tom Jones,

Albert Jones, Mrs. L. M. Hoye,

Billy Reese, Mrs. Susan Reese,

Cecil Webb and the guest of

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Adams had as break

survivors of the crash.

By MARY JOHNSON

Mar 60 years—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frasier, formerly of Lee County, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, April 12, at 3 p.m. at the Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church. The officiant will be the Rev. Bob Lofeed of the downtown church. Mr. and Mrs. Frasier are the parents of six children: Ernie Frasier, Mrs. Margaret

Lee, Mrs. Maxine Lusk, Mrs. Martha Manley, Mrs.

Mary Wilson and Mrs. Ruth Lofeed. They have 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Frasier have always been registered voters and members of the community of Whitestown.

The Frasiers live in the community of Whitestown, where they are active in church and community affairs.

The community of Whitesburg in hosting the annual Hogg Reunion on July 13.

The Hogg family is one of the largest and most influential families in the county. The reuion is held on the second

Saturday of July each year.

The Hogg family is one of the

largest and most influential families in the county. The reuion is held on the second

Saturday of July each year.

The Hogg family is one of the

largest and most influential families in the county. The reuion is held on the second

Saturday of July each year.

The Hogg family is one of the

largest and most influential families in the county. The reuion is held on the second

Saturday of July each year.