Bandsmen on TV

The Whitesburg High School Band will appear on the Virgil Q. Wacks Variety Show over WJHL-TV, Johnson City, at 4 p. m. Sunday.

The band will play a variety of music and the majorettes will present a twirling routine with a cha-cha number.

This week in Whitesburg the band is sponsoring the sale of Royal Crown Cola products in order to finance the trip to Johnson City.

Everyone who buys a carton of RC's from stores displaying the special sign will be helping the band and also will receive a free ticket good for a ride on the ferris wheel on Main Street.

For bike safety

The local VFW Post will sponsor a "Light a Bike" bicycle safety program here Saturday.

All bicycle riders are asked to take their bikes to the depot in Whitesburg to get them equipped with reflectorized tape for safer riding at night. Members of the post and auxiliary police will be there at 10 a. m. to apply the tape to 200 bikes. The tape is free.

Band concert set

Members of the Fleming-Neon Band received a rating of excellent at the annual Southeastern Band Festival at Corbin.

Chosen through competitive auditions to play in the All-Festival Band were Frank Abdo, Dwight Goins, Gerald Fleming, Daniel Van Johnson, Anna Laura Caudill and Diane Harlow.

The Fleming-Neon majorettes did a group routine and won a rating of superior.

The band was accompanied by Director Roderick Tate, his wife and a group of parents.

The band will present a concert at the high school gymnasium at 8 p. m. Friday, May 10. Admission is $1 and 50 cents.

ENGAGED--Mr. and Mrs. Otis Kiser of Cronona announce the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Ann, to Edwin Earl Everidge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ishmael Everidge of Millstone. The wedding will take place at 7:30 p. m. May 18 at the Neon Methodist Church. Miss Kiser is a graduate of Fleming-Neon High School and Pikeville College. Mr. Everidge is a graduate of Whitesburg High School and Mayo Vocational School and is employed as an electrician by the L&N Railroad at Louisville.

Whitesburg youth Pikeville May king

Lowell Boggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boggs of Whitesburg, will reign as May King at Pikeville College's annual festival May 9.

Boggs, a senior at the college, is a graduate of Kingdom Come High School, where he played basketball and was active in dramatics. He was in service four years and attended Lees College.

Final seminar set

The final in a series of seminars on Letcher County sponsored by the Letcher Parent-Teacher Association will be held Monday night at the school.

The discussion will concern establishment of a local development organization and goals of such an organization.

Candidates of all political parties have been invited to speak briefly after the seminar.

INSPECTION PERIOD FOR THE PROPERTY TAX ASSESSMENT ROLL

The Letcher County property tax roll will be open for inspection May 6 through May 10. Any taxpayer may inspect the tax books to check his own assessment and compare it with others in the county.

This is the assessment on which school, county and state taxes will be due on September 15, 1963. The tax books are in the office of the County Tax Commissioner in the county courthouse and may be inspected between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.
