Falling leaves
do something to the soul

By MABEL KISER

The chilly autumn winds are here, and the leaves are turning a golden hue. But I fear that they will not be as beautiful this year as I had hoped they would be. Usually when there has been lots of rain, as we have had this fall, the leaves turn every hue and are just indescribably beautiful. But this year they seem to be turning brown fast. But anyway they will tumble down to earth, sometimes fast and sometimes very leisurely and we will enjoy that. I don't know why, but falling leaves does something to my soul, and makes me happy just to stand and gaze at the falling leaves between me and the blue sky. Maybe it brings back happy memories of when I was a child, the land of Utopia, I don't know. But I do know that I dearly love to see the leaves come tumbling down.

Blain's brother, Carl, his wife Lucy, and their son, Don and his wife, Mary and their three children, who have been here all summer, left Tuesday for their home in California. They have a daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott (Lula Mae) who lives there. I know that they will all be glad to be together but I sure will miss them.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Garry Phillips of Haymond will be sorry to learn that they are both ill at this time. The Phillips, 86 and 82 respectively, are the parents of Mrs. Bummer Holbrook of Tollivertown.

We are more than somewhat output by the man who wrote Joe Creason about his daily column in the Courier-Journal, saying: "What do you feel it accomplishes?" My goodness! Doesn't the man know that laughter is for the soul? Sometimes in the daily grind it is the only real hearty laugh we have during the day. I always share the good stories with my people at the Sewing Center. And we feel that it makes us just a little better people from having laughed aloud. There is so much trouble, sadness and seriousness in this world, that we are thankful for a moment of mirth that gives our mind some relaxation for a moment. You keep up the good work, Mr. Creason, some people are just naturally sour.

Mr. Clayton Sparks, 71, McRoberts is a patient in the Whitesburg Hospital this week.

Mrs. Obie Stewart (Hattie) of Jeremiah is home and doing fair after being in the hospital with a bout of pneumonia.

Mrs. Susan Back is doing fair after she was injured in a fall at her home in Jeremiah.

Michael Allen Hampton and Marietta Trient were married last month in Clintwood, Va. Michael Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hampton, Millstone. Mrs. Hampton is a seamstress at the Millstone Sewing Center. Marietta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trent of Whitco. The couple will live at Whitco.

Linta Wright and his wife, Mary Aileen, have moved from New Lexington, Ohio, to Letcher County. Lintena is the son of the George Wrights of Thornton. Mrs. George Wright (Maxie) is a seamstress at the Sewing Center.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Ewing White of Kona, who died October 3, at the Whitesburg Hospital after a long illness. Mr. White, 64, is survived by his wife, the former Sarah Jane Sanders, and three daughters, Oma King, Elkton, Va.; Willa Iris Sexton, Kona; and Arbutus Anderson, Sergeant; and one son, Leslie Joe White, Thornton; and one brother, Charlie White, Kona; and 12 grandchildren. His funeral was conducted at the Little Rock Regular Baptist Church, Kona, by Elders Patton Taylor, I. D. Back and Bill and Ishmay Sparks. Burial was in the family plot at the Potter Cemetery. The Whites are fine people and they reared a fine family, and I am sure they will miss their father. But I hope they will visit their mother often and how her how much they love her.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hall of Ermine are home again after visiting friends and relatives in Detroit. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Collins and their daughter, Pamela, a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elbery Richardson, a nephew and his family, Mr. and Mrs. William Blair Jr. (Mora Carol), Mr. and Mrs. James Little, Mrs. Barbara Karola, and a grandson, Michael Hall.

Guy Holbrook of Tollivertown is home again and feeling fair after spending some time in the hospital.

Aunt Sarah Jane Franklin is not doing at all well and is still in the Whitesburg Hospital.

Jesse Holbrook, of Sergeant, is still very ill in the Whitesburg Hospital.

Blaine and I drove to Thornton Gap Church Saturday and heard some good preaching by Elders Bruce Mullins, Isom Stallard, Andy Bates and Ballard Meade. After Church we drove back through Hemphill and stopped by the Ballard Meades for dinner and enjoyed the good food and good conversation afterwards. Blaine seldom goes to church with me on Saturday and this Saturday I was happy to have him go with me.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Engle of Lorain, Ohio, we weekend guests of her parents, the Sam Sergents, and his relatives in Cumberland, his mother, Mrs. Mattie Engle, Eolia, his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Hunsaker. They drove to Va. and visited Mrs. Sergeant's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Taylor and Johnny. Another daughter, Mrs. Ethel Sanders drove here from Kingsport, Tenn. One day they drove to Paintsville and did some shopping.

One day last week Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Proffitt of Colson and her daughter, Verna and husband, Floyd Boatright, who was here from Detroit drove up for a visit with the Sam Sergents. The Boatrights are here visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Proffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Proffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Proffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Proffitt and Mrs. Vesta Sergeant all of Colson, and the Leonard Boatrights of Whitesburg.
