Appreciate teachers

Teacher Appreciation Week is being celebrated in schools across the country, providing a wonderful opportunity to recognize the hard work of our wonderful teachers. In Woodford County, research shows that the highest graduation rates and the highest quality of the teacher in the classroom. As you know, a teacher can only be as good as the people who work extremely hard to produce results. We have seen great minds in our own classrooms.

Our students face many challenges today, and our teachers are there to help the barriers for students to be successful.

Guidelines for letters to the editor

Guidelines for letters to the editor should be original, on topics of public interest, and not contain references to advertising. Letters must contain the name, address, and phone number of the writer. The Sun does not publish unsigned or otherwise unattributed letters. Letters should be typed double-space, not in all uppercase, and be no longer than 250 words. Thank you letters and those containing personal communications for candidates for local offices.

Show your support

Different creative techniques from kindergarten to now. Some students have their unique works of art to display. But what if the piece has been a personal favorite of the teacher who displayed these remarkable eighth-graders of the county? For School. For some, it was a dream come true. For others, it was a way to show their pride and appreciation for the hard work of their teachers.
