

in treating this disease. It is said by those who have become acquainted with this manner of treating this affection that they see it with much more ease in the United States than Prof. Wood has not mentioned it as being superior in this disease, but it has been used successfully with much advantage in England.