Bardstown may be at the forefront of the historic zoning movement, said one of the local's DOCtors. “We are at the forefront of the economy,” he said. “Leadership is the key.”

Organizational Leadership

Heinrich and Trzop are assistant professors at the University of Kentucky. Heinrich served on the Bardstown Historic Review Board for 20 years. Trzop is a PhD candidate. The two serve on different planning and zoning boards. Heinrich is also a member of the Kentucky Historical Commission and the Bardstown Heritage Commission.
