Wilma Roberts Tidwell

Wilma Roberts Tidwell, 84, of Jellico, Tenn., formerly of Williamsburg and Pineville, Ky., passed away Tuesday, Jan. 10, 2012, at home in Jellico, Tenn. She was born in Whitley County, Ky. to the late Junior and Wilma (Tidwell) Ausmus. Wilma was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Robert E. “Mac” Tidwell, Sr. in 1999; her parents; and 28 days of age.

WILLIAM E. PAYNE

William E. Payne, 84, of Jellico, Tenn., formerly of Williamsburg and Pineville, Ky., passed away Tuesday, Jan. 10, 2012, at home in Jellico. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Jellico, Tenn., where he was a member of the Oleika Shrine Club of Lexington, Ky., for over 41 years and a member of the Williamsburg Masonic Lodge.

Funeral services were 1 p.m., Friday, Jan. 20, 2012 in the Hart Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Bobby Joe Eaton and Pastor Chad Fugitt officiating. She was laid to rest in the Davis Addition of Highland Park Cemetery in Williamsburg.

Llewellyn Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Llewellyn Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Robert Vanover

Robert Vanover, 60, a lifetime resident of Williamsburg, was called to his heavenly home, Thursday, Jan. 19, 2012 at Jellico Creek in Jellico, Tenn.

Visitation was from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 20, 2012 at the Croley Funeral Home, with Rev. Bruce Lowery officiating. She was laid to rest in the Davis Addition of Highland Park Cemetery in Williamsburg.

Visitation was from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 20, 2012, in the Perkins Cemetery at Brownsville, Whitley County, Ky.

Llewellyn Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Thank You

The family of Ami Croley wish to thank all of you who showed your support and prayers, brought food, made donations or came to comfort us during this time of our loss. Thank all of you who prayed.

We appreciate all the singers, Rev. Johnny Partin, Rev. Chuck Joyce, the палевари and the Staff of Croley Funeral Home for their help with the service and for the kindness they showed. Your thoughtfulness was great appreciate and we are very thankful.

Janet and Carl Croley and family