

Friday May 10 '33

Bank holiday extended indefinitely Some say Banks may open tomorrow - Dilution is ● very acute - no body but financiers know what it all means, & common folk know but little. All we know is that the Banks are closed and ~~you~~ can't get any money or collect checks or drafts - How long is the question. The President asks for extraordinary powers - The first matter comes from the Mercantile Star this afternoon - Some disposition in Congress to kick out of the traces - Will see - Working on my lesson all day - Looking over my papers.

● The Radio news suspends today - Dr Bond Editor - Some schools close - It will work a great hardship on our weekly papers - On our missionary work - On our Pastors etc. It will evidently crush out all our small banks who have loaned out money on poor securities & It will put our Bank Examiners out of business - and very likely put U. S. Examiners in charge Raw tonight - Wind down from the N. - Turned colder last night - With ● Rain - Frost to the coast!! - But Spring is coming up the way by & by - The days fly!! - But the hour will come!! Come on L. Jesus!!!