

and you and all my friends in Kentucky. I am nearly dead to see Mr Wickliffe but as he cannot think of me enough to write to me don't you tell him - I had quite a safe and pleasant trip not more tire
- some than going to Cinc - and if I had had any idea of the little danger and fatigue I should have bundled you up and brought you along - The sleeping Car are a very great convenience - and then there is so much to occupy your mind that you forget all the danger - I do hope you will come on after a few months -

They were all delighted to see me - the children looked perplexed when they got their eyes open and saw it was really Aunt Jin - They all had many questions to ask about Grand Ma and every member of the family black and white even down to "Flower and Brandy". Low says he is opening out
