FOCUS ON THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Mar. 20, 2002

Dry Ridge resident presented a petition at the Casey County Board of Commissioners for the last time. Due to the shortage of such systems and the lack of funds, the short line was cut straight out of the house.

The Danville Fire Department received a notification from the New York Mets that they are interested in purchasing the engine for their fundraising efforts to rebuild a house damaged in a recent storm. The names of both the Danville Fire Department and the Liberty Fire Department are expected to be part of the final deal in New York.

Sheriff Thompson said they would be working on a quilt as part of the charity event. Several groups started the quilt, but the other two got into some small arguments. Sheriff Thompson said he would be working on a quilt as part of the charity event. Several groups started the quilt, but the other two got into a squabble.

50 YEARS AGO

May 26, 1962

This photo shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

10 YEARS AGO

Mar. 17, 1992

Ten years ago Casey News will reprint some of the photos from the first 20 years of the weekly. The photos will be published in the next week with a blast, giving the audience a taste of the past.

Ralph's Grocery in Yearnaw was having a grand opening event on March 26.

Whale seeds were protected under federal law. The seeds were sold for $5.00 per pound.

Middleborough sophomore class

This shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

50 YEARS AGO

May 26, 1962

This photo shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

10 YEARS AGO

Mar. 17, 1992

Ten years ago Casey News will reprint some of the photos from the first 20 years of the weekly. The photos will be published in the next week with a blast, giving the audience a taste of the past.

Ralph's Grocery in Yearnaw was having a grand opening event on March 26.

Whale seeds were protected under federal law. The seeds were sold for $5.00 per pound.

Middleborough sophomore class

This shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

50 YEARS AGO

May 26, 1962

This photo shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

10 YEARS AGO

Mar. 17, 1992

Ten years ago Casey News will reprint some of the photos from the first 20 years of the weekly. The photos will be published in the next week with a blast, giving the audience a taste of the past.

Ralph's Grocery in Yearnaw was having a grand opening event on March 26.

Whale seeds were protected under federal law. The seeds were sold for $5.00 per pound.

Middleborough sophomore class

This shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

50 YEARS AGO

May 26, 1962

This photo shows the 1937 sophomore class at Middleburg High School. The teacher, shown in center, was Mary Douglas "Duddy" Young. In the third row, third picture, Alene Williams Luttrell; fourth row, sixth picture, Agnes Ross Richardson; and fourth row, eight picture, Macie Ponder were elected to membership in the International Honor Society.

10 YEARS AGO

Mar. 17, 1992

Ten years ago Casey News will reprint some of the photos from the first 20 years of the weekly. The photos will be published in the next week with a blast, giving the audience a taste of the past.

Ralph's Grocery in Yearnaw was having a grand opening event on March 26.

Whale seeds were protected under federal law. The seeds were sold for $5.00 per pound.