Blackey: DINNER HONORS BIRTHDAYS

BY CHARLES ANNE MULLIS

Mrs. Mabel Kier and I went to Lexington to attend the dinner honoring Tom and Palm Drill given by the University of Ken- tucky Journalism Department last Thursday night. I enjoyed it so very much, especially meeting Pat’s mother. There were so many other people there, some very well-known and some not too well known.

Everyone seemed to be very pleased with the fact that the Guides were picked to be honored. No one deserves more. The trip down was rough in W. Va. The weather was pretty bad, but we blew up the road and it rained on us all the way back home.

One Friday evening Mr. Jim May, Clyde Back, Deb May, and myself were honored with a delicious banquet and sitting with a cake and all the trimmings. Those present were Mrs. May, May, Mrs. Clyde Back, Mrs. C. R. Caudill, Mrs. Cridle Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Don Back and Keith, Mrs. May- wood Back, Mrs. Nancy Blake and George Hulke.

Miss Audrey Fields attended the Child Welfare League of America annual central region conference in Chicago. She also visited with her kin- folk while in Chicago.

Mr. Bob Loomes, son-in-law to Mr. and Mrs. Deb May, stayed with us during the week. Mr. Loomes has been in Penn- sylvania visiting the family of a very old friend, his wife Barbara and his son, and I understand there is much more to this time. Mr. and Mrs. Loomes have had their son Johnny and family here from Michigan this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dixon visited this weekend from Louisville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dixon, and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim May.

All Dixon and families have been living in Michigan for some time and are invited to the wedding.
