A Night Offense. An English tourist arrived in an Irish town, where a man was about to be hanged for shooting his landlord. Ignorant of the cause of the gathering, he questioned one of the peasants. Englishman—What is going on today, my man? Peasant—They're going t'hang a man, sor. Englishman—What is he to be hanged for? Peasant—Just for a bit uv a joke, sor. Englishman—Hang a man for a joke? Absurd! What did he do? Peasant—He just made game uv his landlord, sor.—Life.

An Illustration. Professor—I have shown you that the color of living creatures is usually a close imitation of their surroundings. Now will some one give us an example of this? Student—Chinamen are the color of the Yellow sea, and American Indians are the color of the Missouri river.—Good News.

The Worst of It. "Matrimony is a game of cards with the chances all one way," she observed, after deep thought. "Yes?" "Yes. A woman has a heart and a man takes it with a diamond, and after that her hand is his, and besides he can beat her with a club."—Detroit Tribune.

Johnny's Ambition. Little Johnny—I'm goin' to be a good boy, so I'll be real religious when I grow up. Fond Mother—Mamma's own treasure! Would you like to be a minister? Little Johnny—No'm; I want to play the big drum in the Salvation Army.—Good News.

A Desideratum. Canvasser—Let me write your application for one of our tax-insurance policies. Mr. Stoxanbons—What is it? Canvasser—A policy we issue insuring millionaires against the payment of income tax. We take all the risk and do all the concealment.—N. Y. World.

A Strong Man. Bacon—That man Black who plays the heavy villain in the new drama must have a wonderful constitution. Egbert—Why? Bacon—He smokes an entire box of cigarettes in the first act and doesn't die until the last act.—Yonkers Statesman.

Opposed to It. Strawber—I don't think the income tax is fair. It makes a man with a family pay as much as a bachelor. Singlerly—You ought not to kick. You are not married. Strawber (bitterly)—No. But I am engaged.—N. Y. World.

A Dangerous Thing. Lawyer—What's that book you are reading? Law Student—Oh, it's a work on common sense. Lawyer—Yes, sir; and one day with such a book as that would ruin your mind for legal work forever.—Judge.

A Melancholy Air. Miss Fingerling (at the piano)—Why did you look so gloomy while I was playing that selection? It's real lively. Mr. Silmpurse—That's the tune the orchestra was playing in the parlor when I settled up my hotel bill at the seaside last summer.—N. Y. Weekly.

Heredity. Binks—Speaking of heredity, do you remember Forrester, who bought some wild land and turned it into a farm? Winks—Yes; he was the inventor of a very effective stump puller. Binks—Just so. Well, his son is a very successful dentist.—N. Y. Weekly.

Bright Enough. This old world's bright enough for all through all the days and nights. For when the sun goes down the west, Shine the electric lights. —Atlanta Constitution.

WIDE EXPERIENCE. "Have you had much experience as cook?" "Of hev, ma'am. OI had seventeen places lasht year, ma'am."—Harper's Bazar.

The Final Order. Mr. Peck (the grocer)—Is there nothing else you need, Mrs. McBride? Mrs. McBride—Let me see. I think baby is old enough to drink cambric tea. You may send up half a pound.—Judge.

In the Flat. Mr. Newcomer—Have the neighbors called upon you yet? Mrs. Newcomer—I should say they had. They've called upon me for almost everything in the house.—N. Y. World.

Withering. "What did you give at the pound party?" she asked. "Oh, I gave myself away as usual," replied Willie Washington. "Dear me, did they let you pass for sixteen ounces?"—Washington Star.

A Bad Marksman. Jessica—I saw Will kissing you in the hall, last night; didn't he have a cheek? Geraldine—Yes, that's all he did have; I dodged him so well that he couldn't kiss my lips at all.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Undoubtedly. Every mother can find something good to say of her own son, but sometimes she is hard put to it. The Boston Transcript chronicles a sad instance. "Yes, I know," said old Mrs. Homespun, "John is sort o' lazy about some things. So are we all for that matter. But he ain't downright lazy. He'll work hard enough when he gets the work that suits him." "It is clever of you to say so," said Uncle George; "but what kind of work does suit him?" "Well," answered Mrs. Homespun, "there's—there's—well, John is awfully industrious at smoking, for example."

He Didn't Want His Life. Kind Gentleman—That boy just hit you, did he? Small Boy—Yes, he did. Kind Gentleman—Well, now, why don't you heap coals of fire on his head, like a good boy? Small Boy—Do good boys do that? Kind Gentleman—Yes, indeed, all good boys. Small Boy—Well, I guess I must be wicked then, 'cause I don't want to burn the chump to death, I just want to punch his head.—Life.

Tragedy in High Life. A foreign young noble of high degree came hunting a wife across the sea. In style as betis the peerage. But he could not find an American girl. Who cared to purchase a duke or an earl. And he went back home in the steerage. —Chicago Tribune.

TRELAWNEY AND HIS TANDEM. Trelawney Fitzmoode was once a poor clerk—a ribbon department was where he did work; but fortune at length took a kinder turn; his rich uncle died leaving money to him. A tandem he soon learned to drive like a sportsman. For handling the ribbons had long been his forte. —Truth.

Their Fatal Mistake. Returned Traveler—What has become of Cateham & Chestem, the rich lawyers? Retired, I presume? Resident—Yes, retired. They are both in the poorhouse. "Pshaw! What happened?" "They had a quarrel and sued each other."—N. Y. Weekly.

A Difference. Mr. Uptowne—Your flat is heated by steam, I believe? Mr. Fourthfloor—No, sir; it's not. Mr. Uptowne—Why, you told me it was! Mr. Fourthfloor—No; what I said was that we had steam radiators in every room.—Puck.

In the City of Divorces. Mabel—Do you believe that May marriages are less happy than those of any other month? Mrs. Lakeshore—No; I wasn't any happier than when I was married in October, January, April, August, February or June.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

When They Wear Them. The New Woman—When women, I say, are placed upon a perfect equality with men, there will be no more female vagrants. The Old Man—That's true. They will all have visible means of support.—Brooklyn Life.

The Way of Some Women. "Grace and Minnie have quarreled and both are miserable." "No; they have made friends, and are perfectly happy again." "How do you know?" "I saw them both crying together."—Titbits.

Jealousy in Gowanus. Mrs. Mulgrew—I see Mrs. O'Flannigan has a new hood. Mrs. O'Dooley—Yes; the poor thing needed somethin' o' the kind to cover up the bald spots on her head.—Brooklyn Eagle.

An Indication. "Biffon must have won a good deal of money recently." "How do you know?" "His wife told mine that she thought horse-racing might not be so very wrong."—Washington Star.

Not Very Ancient. "Is Miss Primrose a daughter of the revolution?" "Mercy! no, she wasn't born until after the war of 1812."—Atlanta Constitution.

Those Foreign Names. Jack—Did you hear that the Do-Smyths had a spill from their jaunting car yesterday? Bob—I'm not surprised. He calls it his "turn-out."—Truth.

Rough on the Old Man. She—the bride nearly fainted during the ceremony and it was all her father could do to support her. He—And yet I believe he has managed to support both of them since the ceremony.—Brooklyn Life.

No Chance to Lie. Mrs. Brown—How can you say there is more excuse for an Irishman to drink in this country than in Ireland? Brown—Because, my dear, over there he can never say he has taken the whiskey for a snake bite.—Judge.

NABOTH 10016.

Standard Rule 6. Record 2:19. Will make the season of 1895. Sired by WALSINGHAM 2166, sire of Latitude 2:55 1/2 and 7 or 8 others in the list.

Walsingham 2166, sire of Naboth, is one of the youngest sons of George Wilkes 219, record 2:22, who sired Harry Wilkes 2:15 1/2, Guy Wilkes 2:15 1/2, Mike Wilkes 2:15 1/2, Wilcox 2:16, and 60 others in a 230 list; also at producing sons and 19 producing daughters.

Naboth—Naboth is a bay horse, 16 hands high, foaled June 28, 1888. His pedigree contains the blood of Hambletonian, George Wilkes, Mambrino Chief, Pilot, Jr., and Harry Clay.

At $15 to Insure a Living Colt. My fine Saddle Stallion, WILLIAM L., Will also make the present season of 1895 at the low price of EIGHT DOLLARS to insure a living colt. He is elegantly bred and a sure foot getter. I will also stand

SIX OR 7 GOOD JACKS, On the following terms: I am to have the refusal of the colt at your price on September 1, 1896 deducting one-fifth of the amount for season money, but if the price is not satisfactory to me, I will take one-fifth of the amount asked for the colt to pay for the season.

NOTE—Owing to the hard times and the low price of horse stock, I have greatly reduced season fee of my horses and jacks, and considering their individuality and breeding, they stand lower than any in the State. Stable two miles South of Hustonville, on Moreland & Carpenter's Station pike. J. K. BAUGHMAN, Hustonville, Ky.

JUMBO. This fine young jack will make the present season at as low a price as a horse can. Has fine disposition; drives nicely and for his handling he is a fine actor. Rack, Trot, Walk, Canter and Slow Pace. A few of his colts have come this Spring and all have been found going the gait with high head and tail of extra fine size.

You can see from his pedigree that he is a very highly bred saddle horse, and one that will sire fancy, high-tailed saddlers. Logic will make the season at my farm, 4 miles from Danville, on the Danville and Stanford turnpike.

AT $5 TO INSURE A COLT 4 MONTHS OLD. Mares kept at reasonable rates. JOSIAH BISHOP, Shelby City, Ky.

Emperor 27. Standard and Registered; 16 1/2 hands high; six years old and weighs 1,150 pounds. Emperor 27 will make the present season of 1895 at my farm near Shelby City at $5 for Mares and $10 for Jennets. I. S. TEVIS, Post-Office, Shelby City, Ky.

PENCE. Will make the season at my place, 1 1/2 miles East of Stanford, at $15 To Insure a Living Colt. Pence has proved himself to be a breeder of both style and speed. His colts have sold from the pasture, without any training bills, at $50 to $75 these hard times.

Mares taken care of at $5 per month, but not responsible for accidents. A. M. PENCE, Stanford, Ky.

BRIGNOLIA. This splendid combined stallion will make the present season of 1895 at the farm of the late L. D. Garner, 3 miles from Crab Orchard, at $5 to Insure a Colt 4 months old. Brignolia is a red bay stallion, saddle and harness combined; 16 hands high; fine style and action and has fine mane and tail. He was sired by Abdallah Messenger, by Messenger Chief.

Brignolia's first dam by Old Lexington, the fine saddle horse.

CLINTON, JR. This fine young Jack will serve a limited number of mares at SIX DOLLARS per season. Mares due if mare is traded or parted with. W. S. GARNER, Crab Orchard, Ky.

ROYAL KING. Bay stallion, 16 hands high; foaled in 1890; goes all the gaits perfectly. Full brother to Silver King and the great show horse, Allie G. He is by Op Time. First dam Mollie Mounts by Cabell's Lexington.

Eaglet. Brown stallion, 15 1/2 hands high; foaled in 1892. Sired by Woods' Eagle Bird, first dam Mollie Mounts, as above. This is as fine a horse as you will find in Kentucky and goes all saddle gaits good.

Chester Denmark. Dark brown stallion, 15 1/2 hands high, sired by Chester Dare. First dam Daisy, by Wallace Denmark, and dam by Dick Elmore. Daisy has a fine mane and many rings in her 3 and 4 year old foal.

The above stallions will make the season of 1895 at my stable 1 mile from Stanford on the Hustonville pike at $10 to Insure a Live Colt. Colts stand good for season money. Mares from a distance kept at $5 per month but not responsible for accidents. Stallions in charge of Roy S. Beazley. Am prepared to handle horses at reasonable prices. JOE E. FARRIS

EAGLE BIRD! THE GREAT SHOW STALLION, Winner of $500 stake at Lexington, won second money in $500 stake at Versailles, winner of aged premium and sweepstake at Paris, also winner of other premiums in 1893 since which time he has been in the stud.

Eagle Bird is a beautiful brown, with small star, stands over 16 hands, has a flowing mane and a heavy tail. Eagle Bird was sired by King Eagle, winner of $1000 stake at Lexington, by Star Eagle, best son of Cabell's Lexington.

Eagle Bird was sired by Hamlet Denmark, son of Washington Denmark. 30 dam by Harris' Denmark, son of Miller's Denmark.

Eagle Bird will make the season of 1895 at his stable two miles west of Stanford, on the Shelby City pike, at the extremely low price of $15 to Insure a Living Colt. Money or cash note will be required when a living colt is obtained. Mares from a distance of the greatest show horses in Kentucky, as his record in 1893 will attest. As a breeder of fine, color bred, high styled colts he is not surpassed.

Mares from a distance will be furnished grass after May 1st at $3 per month and must be paid at the removal of the mares. Care will be taken to prevent accidents and escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur. Parting with or removal of mares forfeits the insurance. E. P. WOODS.

St. John, sire of the g. d. of Tully's Warrior, he dam an imported jennet.

The above finely bred young jack, whose blood lines trace twice to the great warrior family and to the noted Black Hawk, the greatest of the warrior family, with an infusion of fresh imported blood close up, has proved a great breeder. Will stand at $5 to insure a living colt to approved mares and $10 for jennets, without distinction as to sex or progeny. I will also stand

SAM SMALL, At $4 to insure a living colt. Sam is said to be the best cotton mule jack in the country.

B. F. POWELL.

THE WORLD'S CHAMPION, Gambonito 8419.

Race Record 2:15 1/2. Sire of Gilbert 2:54. Winner of the 2-year-old and 3-year-old premiums for standard-bred trotters at the World's Fair, 1893.

Sired by Gambetta Wilkes 2:19 1/2. Sire of 42 in a 30 list.

1st dam Maud, by Garrard Chief, sire of Basil Duke 2:54 and Lady Veiser, dam of five in a 30 list. 2d dam Nellie, by son of Billy Yorshie 2:16, by Joe bean, 3d dam by Helms' Yorkshire, thoroughbred.

Gambonito 8419 will make the season of 1895 at Central Park, at the low price of $25 to Insure a Living Colt. Gambonita 2:15 1/2, the handsome black son of that great young sire, Gambetta Wilkes 2:19 1/2, has been bred by the highest authority in the world after going through the most trying tests, the finest and most perfect specimen of standard bred trotting stallion that lives. Gambonito wears the official seal as being the handsomest trotting stallion in the world, and all who have seen the kindly firm and lordly bearing of this proud monarch of the equine world know how justly he is so long and so worthily worn by Mambrino King belongs to this grand production of Kentucky horsefame. Gambonito is a jet black stallion, just 16 hands high, weighs 1,500 pounds, and is an individual worthy wears the title, "the finest bred trotting stallion in the world," as awarded him by the World's Fair committee. He was sired by the grand pacer offered for standard bred stallions five years old and over and also first prize for trotting stallions of any age in harness. This was his one or of the two most important prizes offered at the World's Columbian Exposition.

His first colt, Gilbert 2:54, at 3 years old, won four out of five races in 1893, as yearling. He breeds speed and individuality. If you want to raise the king to sell, Gambonito is the one to breed to. Call and see his colts; they will speak for themselves.

THORNTON STAR. 1024 Saddle Horse Register. Mahogany bay, 15 1/2 hands, sound in every particular. Foaled May, 1891.

Sired by R. P. PRINCE, by Second Jewel 48, by Jewel Denmark 70, by Washington Denmark 64, by Gaines' Denmark 61, by Denmark F. S., by Imported Hedgeford.

1st dam Diamond 514, a brown mare, 16 hands, by Nobby 36, sire of Nobby, Jr., 215, by Garrard Chief, sire of Basil Duke 2:54, by Mambrino Chief, and the dams of Gambonito 2:15 1/2, world champion, and Lady Veiser, dam of five in a 30 or better. 2d dam Old Diamond 513, by Len Rogers, 3d dam by Gaston's Ladyette.

Thornton Star is the kind to breed to. You find on his sire's side he runs back to Imp. Hedgeford. On his dam's side he has the trotting cross of Nobby, by Mambrino Chief 31, and is the sire of two 2:30 trotters; besides Nobby is sire of a great many of our best saddle horses, and a registered saddle stallion and also trotting stud.

Diamond, the dam of Thornton Star, is 16 hands and is one of the finest mares in Kentucky. She is a noted show mare with great style and action. His 2nd dam was 16 hands and as fine as anybody's. Thornton Star was exhibited last year as a 3-year old at quite a number of Kentucky fairs and only
