THE FIVE MEETINGS. At the First Baptist Church Were Well Attended Yesterday.

Our city is now engaged in one of the grandest and most complete revivals in its history, the First Baptist Church being filled to its utmost capacity by people who are anxious for the safety and welfare of their relatives and friends.

Yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock a large crowd gathered at the church to listen to Evangelist Pife, and for one solid hour they had the pleasure of being instructed by one of the most earnest and eloquent pulpit orators Maysville has had within her limits in many years.

Those who were there learned that the evangelist is here to try and take this city for Christ—a home missionary, trying to do the work that the good Christian people have been praying for.

At the evening service the house was packed, and it is safe to say that if the people do not go before 7 o'clock hereafter they will have to stand up.

Every morning service will begin at 10 o'clock, and the people who attend will have to be there not later than 10:30, as requested by Mr. Fife.

HIS STANDING AS A MASON. Masonic Duty in Case Miss Pollard's Father was a Mason.

Judge J. Soule Smith, Past Grand Master of Kentucky, Past Grand High Priest, and Past Eminent Commander of Webb Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, one of the best posted Masons living since the death of Albert Pike, was seen at Lexington regarding the dispatch sent out from Frankfort saying that a movement was on foot to expel Colonel Breckinridge from the Masonic fraternity.

Judge Smith said: "I know nothing whatever except what I have seen published. The Frankfort Lodge could not expel him. Colonel Breckinridge is a member of Lexington Lodge No. 1, at this place, and could not be expelled by any Lodge to which he did not belong. He is a member of Lexington Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, and of Webb Commandery K. T., No. 3—or was a member of these two latter bodies I think—though I do not know whether he is in good standing or not; that is, whether his dues have been paid up or not. He is not, and, according to my best impression, never was a member of Washington Council, R. and S. M., of this city. These bodies alone would have the right to try and expel him."

"Do you know whether the father of Miss Madeline Pollard was a Mason or not?" "I do not. His name does not appear in the list published in 1859 by Robt. Morris. I know one old Mason who thinks he has seen him in a Lodge. I myself, never heard of him as such before this trial. The papers have spoken of him as 'Grand Master' of the Frankfort Lodge. He could only have been 'Grand Master' of the entire state. I see in Miss Pollard's testimony that the 'Grand Lodge' of Masons buried her father. That cannot be true, since her father was never so far as I can learn—an officer of that body. He may have been a Mason; I do not know."

"If Colonel Breckinridge knew Miss Pollard to be a daughter of a Mason at the time he began his illicit relations with her, would it be within the power of his Lodge to expel him?" "It certainly would not only be within the power of his Lodge, but also the duty of his Lodge to do so. 'Any offense against the laws of God is a violation of the laws of Masonry,' was the edict of our Grand Lodge in 1877. In 1878 it was decided that blasphemy, drunkenness or 'the violation of the chastity of a female' were Masonic offenses. When that female is a Master Mason's daughter, the offense becomes one of which I cannot speak for publication, or even to you privately. The Lodge to which the offending person belongs may discipline him by expulsion or suspension. If it fails to do so, the Grand Lodge may act (decision 1879.) but may not fix the quantum of punishment."

"Would the fact of Miss Pollard's father being a member of Frankfort Lodge necessarily cause the present members of that Lodge to espouse her cause?" "It would not. If Mr. Pollard was a member, in good standing, of that or any other Masonic Lodge, the members would be likely to assist his widow and orphans in every legitimate way. They would protect them from seduction, warn them of approaching or impending danger, look after their interests when it became necessary, or they were asked to do so, and try to shield and guard them from any and every trouble. If they believe that Colonel Breckinridge has wronged a Master Mason's daughter, they have a right to complain to his Lodge, but there is no duty incumbent on them to prosecute Miss Pollard's case or espouse her cause. Masonry aims to protect and assist the helpless, not to avenge wrongs already committed."

"What would be the attitude of Masons generally, if it were proven that Colonel Breckinridge has seduced a Mason's daughter?" "One of hostility. They cannot act politically, as Masons; but, as men, they would regard him as false to his Masonic obligations."

THE MAGIC CITY. GREAT SUCCESS OF "THE LEDGER'S" GIFT TO PATRONS.

Instructions How to Get a Set of the Handsome World's Fair Views Published.

THE LEDGER on Saturday began distributing to its patrons the finest series of World's Fair Views that have yet been issued. This is the testimony of all who have seen them:

Now, we will try to make plain the way to get them: First—Cut out of THE LEDGER this coupon:

Coupon for 'The Magic City' art portfolio, including the name 'Public Ledger' and 'Magic City Art Portfolio Coupon'.

Mail or bring to the office of THE LEDGER SIX COUPONS like this, of different dates, and Ten Cents in silver, and receive Art Portfolio No. 7 of the World's Fair.

NOTE—Six Coupons of different dates and Ten Cents are required for each Portfolio. There will be sixteen numbers.

April 3, 1894. Second—When you have cut out SIX coupons of different dates, if you live in the city and your paper is delivered by carrier, bring them to this office with TEN CENTS, and one book of the Views will be given to you.

If you live at some other place, send the six coupons and ten cents by mail to this office and the book will be sent to you by mail from Philadelphia.

Third—If you have mislaid any of your coupons, you can get the books at 15 cents each, and you can get the back numbers at any time. After the set is finished appropriate binding can be had at a small cost.

The set comprises sixteen books, and when completed it will form a most magnificent volume. There's no other way in which you can secure such an art treasure for so little money. PLEASE REMEMBER. When we say six coupons, we don't mean five. When we say coupon, we mean the entire coupon with the border around it, and not a piece of it.

The date at the bottom of the coupon is changed every day, and you must send us six of different dates. Under no circumstances will any exceptions be made to the above requirements.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

WANT A CHANGE.

OHIO DEMOCRATS DESERT THE SINKING SHIP.

Huntington Township Goes Republican For the First Time in Many Years—The Result in Aberdeen.

Township and municipal elections were held in Ohio Monday.

Huntington Township, just across the river, has been rock-ribbed and Democratic for lo these many years; but under the influence of the "good times" and the plentitude of Cleveland Badge Factories the people voted for a change.

The result of the vote in the Township is given below:

Table listing names and votes for various positions: For Trustee, P. W. Cooper, D. no opposition, 345; W. S. Griffith, D., 278; S. G. Evans, R., 217; Constable, John Grierson, R., 303; B. C. Farley, D., 190; Assessor, Sam Brookover, R., 381; Clem Wilson, D., 218; Justice of the Peace, Homer Games, R., 263; David King, D., 252.

It will be seen that the Republicans elected three officers and the Democrats two—one without opposition.

In Aberdeen the municipal election resulted as follows:

Table listing names and votes for Mayor, Marshal, and Councilmen: Mayor, Thomas F. Hill, R., 81; Jesse Ellis, D., 71; Marshal, J. B. Jones, D., 78; W. H. Middlewarth, D., 31; John L. Schlitz, R., 40; Treasurer, B. R. Wilson, R., 93; John O'Harran, D., 50; Councilmen, W. A. Rist, D., 110; Thomas Madigan, R., 103; George W. Schlitz, R., 61; G. W. Howard, D., 56; W. N. Campbell, R., 38; J. W. Jones, D., 38; Wm. Clephane, R., 19.

The first three, two Republicans and one Democrat, are elected.

An ominous circumstance is the fact that "Bukey" Wilson the ex-Postmaster beat John O'Harran the present Postmaster for Treasurer. What does it mean? Cincinnati has gone Republican, and so has every place else.

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow."
