

THE DATE . . .
on your label shows the time to which your subscription is paid. Please remit when your time expires or notify us to stop paper.

THE JEFFERSONIAN

ESTABLISHED JUNE 1907—ONLY COUNTRY PAPER IN JEFFERSON COUNTY.

OUR PRINTING . . .
Department is in charge of expert workmen and our charges are no more than you pay for poor work. Both Phones.

Vol. 6. No. 17

Jeffersontown, Jefferson County, Ky., Thursday, October 17, 1912

Every Thursday at $1.00 Per Year

DIPHTHERIA

Becoming Serious In Many Places.

Rumor Of Wedding—A Splendid News Letter From Dry Ridge.

Dry Ridge, Oct. 14.—Diphtheria is in most all our surrounding neighborhoods and getting nearer and nearer. As yet there are no cases on Dry Ridge, but it is with fear and great anxiety that we hear of its approach. Have just heard that Vane Hill, son of Mr. Clifton Hill, of Whitfield, has it, and the two year old child of Mr. Hardesty, of the same place, died this morning of tonsillitis or some throat trouble, and other members of the family are very ill. Elk Creek school has been closed and a number of cases reported from there.

Our near neighbor, Mr. D. F. Wigginton, is to have a sale Wednesday. Soon after which he and his wife will move to a cottage in the Cane Run neighborhood leaving Mr. Walter Markwell and wife in charge of their farm. We dislike very much to see them go as they have been good friends and neighbors to us for many years. Our only consolation in their going is that Mrs. Wigginton's health may improve from the change, and that they have left their old home in the care of such worthy young people as Mr. and Mrs. Markwell.

Rumor tells us that we are to have a wedding soon. One of the best young men (and as I have said before we pride ourselves in our young men) is to marry a mighty fine girl about the last of the month, who will be greatly missed in her home and a pleasant addition to our community. Our good wishes and congratulations are their's.

Just here I went to the phone and was told that Roosevelt was shot last night. Truly in the midst of life we are in death. I can only hope his life will be spared, and deplore the fact that by demanding "what Washington declined and Grant was denied" he has spoiled what would have been one of the most wonderful and brilliant careers of history.

Mrs. Jake Fleck and Mrs. John Phillips attended the burial of Mrs. Miller, of Louisville yesterday.

Mrs. McGinness, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. D. F. Wigginton.

Mr. M. G. Boston and family entertained Mr. Tom Porter and family and Herman Motherhead and wife, all of Bullitt county, last Sunday.

Mr. Lee Harris and wife, of this place, and Mrs. Wells, of Jeffersontown, spent Sunday with Mrs. Abe Anderson and family, of near Jeffersontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wells entertained Mr. Frudry and family Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Carrithers spent several days last week with her son, John Carrithers and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fleck entertained Fred Fleck and wife Sunday.

Mr. Crit. Drake has just returned home from a visit to Shelbyville.

Mrs. Kate Wakefield, of Shelbyville, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Beard Wakefield, and several others recently took dinner with M. G. Boston.

Mr. Roy Reid and wife entertained Bluford Crenshaw and wife, of Mt. Washington, and Miss Annie Reid and nephew, of this place, Sunday.

Mrs. Theo. Hardman, of Louisville, spent last week with her sister, Miss Annie Reid.

Mrs. Wallace Wells and her cousin, Mrs. Minnie Poor, are visiting Mr. McMahan and family, near Seatonville, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Shake attended church at King's Sunday and afterward took dinner with Mr. Wig Shake and wife.

Mrs. Eva Bridwell and daughter, Bessie, took Mrs. Annie McKinley home Saturday and remained over Sunday with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Tinnell attended church at Cedar Springs and took dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Pound who also entertained Taylor Pound and family and Ed. Bates and family, of Louisville.

Old Brother Powers preached at King's church last Sunday and spent that night with Mr. D. F. Wigginton and family. So highly is he esteemed and liked that all took an interest in his visit here and those who did not get to see or hear him felt glad to know he is still able to preach and visit his friends.

Mr. Jim Neal and family spent Sunday with Charley Davis and wife, of Jeffersontown.

Mrs. Walter Markwell is expecting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoke, of Harro's Creek, this afternoon for a few days visit.

Mrs. Theo. Hardman and Miss Annie Reid spent the day Friday with Mrs. M. G. Boston.

Will Play Sunday.

Fanelli Brothers will stack up against the strong Seatonville team at Jefferson Heights next Sunday. Both teams have been playing fast ball and a good game can be looked for. Dr. Turner will manage Seatonville while Rommele will manage the Confectionery team. Game called at 2 P. M.

Flag Raising at Rock Bridge.

The Banner Council of the J. O. U. A. M. will give a flag raising and a Bible to the Rock Bridge school at Worthington next Sunday, October 20, at 3 o'clock. There will be plenty of good speakers and an enjoyable program rendered. Everybody will be welcome.

NEW CEMETERY

In Jefferson County Creating Interest—Opening of 240 Acres By Evergreen Company.

Elsewhere in the columns of The Jeffersonian appears the Evergreen Cemetery Company's advertisement. By reason of the interest that has been taken in this new venture it may not be amiss to call the attention of our readers to some interesting facts concerning the cemeteries of this county.

The oldest cemetery in the county is Western, between 15th and 18th streets in Louisville, which was established by Act of Council in 1832. It is practically abandoned for burial purposes. Cave Hill, admittedly one of the most beautiful cemeteries in the country, was dedicated July 25, 1848. It started with only 27 acres but has since acquired a total of 288 acres. Its further expansion is virtually prohibited by the encroaching streets and buildings and by Cherokee Park. St. Stephens and St. Michael's were both started in 1854; St. Johns three years earlier; St. Louis was opened up in 1867; Portland cemetery in 1862.

Thus it will be seen that with the exception of the Jewish cemetery on Preston street, (which was established in 1876) all the cemeteries in Louisville have been in existence for a half century or longer. It necessarily follows therefore that they are either filled up or are rapidly using up their surplus ground. There will be at least 100,000 deaths in and about Louisville in the next twenty years, and burying places must be provided for them. The present cemeteries will be totally inadequate to this demand upon their resources.

It seems therefore very fitting that some of our best known public-spirited citizens should have realized this situation and that they should have taken steps to remedy it by establishing Evergreen Cemetery. It contains 240 acres of good ground on the Preston street Road and is to be laid out on what is known as the Eastern "Lawn Plan." The men back of it make its success assured. We are reliably informed that their plans contemplate the expenditure of over one hundred thousand dollars within the next two years, and that they will spare no pains in making of it a cemetery in which Louisville and Jefferson county will take much pride. Its profit-sharing plan especially commends it to those who are looking for a safe and profitable real estate investment.

(Advertisement)

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25c at all druggists.

MIDDLETOWN

Many Social Gatherings During Past Week.

Dr. S. D. Wetherby Ill—Death Of James Brooks—Other News of Interest.

Middletown, Oct. 15.—"The melancholy days have come," says William C. Bryant in his poem, "The Death of The Flowers." 'Tis true, as I write there is a tint of summer's green still lingering in the meadows, the golden rod in the wood, the black-eyed Susans by the brook lend richness to its hue; 'tis true, ere long, we shall have naked trees, wailing winds and brown meadows, while the fair and gentle face of flowers shall in their graves be laid. In this, as in all nature, is but a creation of God, and has a lesson for us all to learn over and over again. As the flower and leaf die and goeth to its burial, it teaches that we too shall die and at the call of Him, who is the resurrection and the life, for we shall arise in the newness of life. The same power which can bring forth a fresh and beautiful plant can from our dead bodies produce a new and glorious body and unite it to our immortal spirits never to be separated.

Mr. W. T. Clore moved last Saturday from his farm at Anchorage into the home he purchased from Mr. H. P. Peary. It is quite a change from the quiet farm life into our bustling little town, where hundreds of automobiles and wagons pass by every day. We enjoy seeing the bright faced school boys and girls pass on their way to school. It reminds us of the happy days when we were all school girls and boys.

We are sorry to report that Dr. S. D. Wetherby has been sick for several weeks. We hope to see him out soon in his usual health for he is greatly missed in the community.

Protracted meeting begins at the Christian church on Sunday evening, Oct. 27, Sunday week Preaching by Rev. J. J. Cole. The music will be conducted by Mr. Coppa, of Louisville. Mrs. Coppa will assist with the music and there will be special stereopticon illustrated songs.

The funeral of Mr. James Brooks was held at the Methodist church last Tuesday afternoon. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. M. L. Russell and burial was at Mt. Zion Lutheran cemetery. We sympathize with Mrs. Brooks and the children in their loss.

Mrs. B. T. Coleman attended the funeral of her uncle, Capt. E. A. Lawson, of Louisville, last Tuesday. The burial was at Cave Hill cemetery.

Miss Mamie Clore is visiting in Louisville, the guest of Mrs. B. T. Vetter and attending the International Convention of the Christian churches held at the Armory.

Those attending the convention from here this week are Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Coleman, Mrs. J. L. Cox, Mrs. Edw. Mitchell, Mrs. John Waters, Mrs. John Tatchell, Miss Daisy Tharp, Mr. and Mrs. Will Tharp and others. Dr. Wallace Tharp arrived here Monday to be the guest of his brothers Mr. Will and John Tharp, and will attend the convention this week at the Armory.

Mr. Will Beynroth and son, Erving, of Louisville, Misses Lucy and Ruth Weatherbee were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mrs. Chas. Weatherbee.

Mr. James Dugan and family, of Louisville, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dugan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Yates and Mrs. James Stegar, of Princeton, are guests of their sister, Mrs. Hugh Milliken, and are attending the convention in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Peary, Mr. and Mrs. Harland Wood, Misses Lucile and Laura May Peary, Miss Ethel and Virginia Wood were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood.

Rev. J. J. Cole was entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. P. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Martin. In the afternoon Mr. Cole preached at the Kentucky Military Institute.

The cake and flower sale given by our energetic teachers, Mrs. Viola Caldwell, Miss Katie Durr and Miss Mansby, at the New York store last Saturday, was highly successful. Every cake brought a dollar. The proceeds of the sale were $32.85, which will be used for the employment of a janitor and for beautifying the interior of the building. We have a full school and the best of teachers.

Preparations are being made for work to begin on the cold storage and ice plant here as soon as the titles of the land are proven up. They are to begin soon on locating water.

Pays Promptly.

Recently Mr. J. M. Martin lost one of his farm mares by death. The animal was insured with J. C. Alcock, agent for the Indiana and Ohio Live Stock Insurance Company against death from any cause. As soon as the claim was made and proven the Company immediately paid to Mr. Martin $125.00. The Indiana and Ohio Live Stock Insurance Company is the oldest and largest live stock insurance company in the country and has a reputation for paying promptly. There have been a good many horses lost by death from natural causes in Jefferson county recently. If they had been insured with J. C. Alcock, agent at Jeffersontown, the owners would now be feeling much better over their losses. The cost of insurance is small compared with the risk.

DEMOCRATIC

Meeting and Speaking in Louisville Saturday By County Club.

The Jefferson County Democratic Club will hold a meeting at its headquarters in Louisville next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. At 1 o'clock there will be a Democratic speaking at the Roof Garden of the Seelbach Hotel. Good speakers will be on hand and a large crowd is desired. Everybody is invited to attend.

(Advertisement.)

A Log on the Track

of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesseheimer, of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

This is the only printing plant in Jefferson county outside the city. We do all kind of printing at lowest prices.

MARRIAGES

Of Popular Couples In St. Matthews.

A Good News Letter From One Of The Progressive County Towns.

St. Matthews, Oct. 4.—The beautiful weather of the last two weeks has given farmers all the work they could do, cutting corn and drilling wheat. Farmers' wives, of course, must keep up their part of the job—meals abundant and on time, which means strenuous days, indeed, sandwicheing in pickling, preserving and the general housework belonging to autumn.

Instead of building the new up-to-date schoolhouse in Brown's Lane this fall, as was contemplated, (and which will be accomplished in the Spring) a new room—just a temporary make-shift for the present—is being added to the old building in St. Matthews, which will somewhat relieve the congestion of three in a small seat. Those children are too young to grip the end of benches all day, falling off occasionally to the confusion of the long suffering teachers, the amusement of the older scholars and great embarrassment to the little folks. Isn't that a shameful condition of affairs for the progressive "saints"?

The marriage of Mr. Benjamin F. King and Miss Ruth W. Graham will be solemnized Oct. 15 at nine o'clock in the Broadway Methodist church.

All who can possibly do so are attending the Convention of Christian churches at the Louisville Armory this week. None should miss this missionary rally as representatives from every missionary point are there to tell us of the work being done and the cry for help in time of need, opening up our opportunities to usefulness.

The marriage of Miss Lottie Lee Dodd to Mr. Charles Humphrey Semple took place Oct. 9 at the Castleman residence in Chenoweth Lane, the home of the bride's brother, who gave her away at the altar in the marriage ceremony, the Rev. Dr. Charles Hemphill officiating. The bride was charming in her mother's wedding gown of white corded silk and rose paint trimmings with seed pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Semple left after the reception for the East and on their return they will reside in Louisville.

The Whittenauer land in Chenoweth Lane has been sold and a court for residences and flat buildings will be built at once. Can anyone say we are not going forward? A. B. C.

Mrs. E. A. Jones Dead.

Mrs. Eliza A. Jones, aged eighty-six years, four months and fifteen days, died Tuesday, October 15, 1912, at the home of her son, T. P. Jones, on the Seatonville Road, of infirmities of old age. She was born May 31, 1826, on the Seatonville road near Cedar Springs, and spent her entire life in the same neighborhood. She was the daughter of Mr. Peter Omer. On August 19, 1847, she was married to L. E. Jones. After fifty-three years of wedded life this union was broken by the death of her husband October 9, 1900. To this union were born twelve children, five boys and seven girls, six of whom are still living. She was a faithful wife and loving mother and had been a member of the Methodist church for forty-three years, but was deprived of the privilege of attending for the past eleven years. She loved the fellowship of Christian people and often had preaching services at her home, which she enjoyed very much. She has been a great sufferer for several years, but bore her afflictions with patience.

She is survived by three sons, J. L., T. P. and R. E. Jones, of near Jeffersontown; three daughters, Mrs. Catherine Stout, of Louisville, Mrs. Alice Stout, of Mt. Washington, and Mrs. W. A. Winand, Jeffersontown. Fifteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren also survive. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. L. Mell at the home of her son, T. P. Jones, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and burial was in Jeffersontown cemetery.

Epworth League Program.

Following is the Epworth League program for Sunday, October 20, at 6:30 p. m.:

Topic—"A Blind Beggar and One That Was Deaf." "The Use of the Senses in the Attainment of Character."

Leader—Mr. Louie Coe.

Sentence Prayers.

Scripture References.

Mark 10: 46-52—Miss Margaret Harris.

Mark 7: 31-37—Miss Nannie B. Lindle.

Judges 16: 15-21—Mr. Levi Hoke.

Tell of the improved methods of teaching the blind and the dumb in our State institutions—Dr. Stucky.

The right use of the Senses as an exceedingly important trust—Mr. Sibley.

Is it right to give up to affliction—Mrs. Bessie Barnett.

Paper on Helen Keller—Miss Gertrude Ellingsworth.

OKOLONA.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bence and son, Newburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. M. A. Beeler's family.

Miss Georgia May Queen and brother, Robert, of Louisville, visited their mother, Mrs. Emma Queen, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Brown and daughters, Misses Niva and Virginia Bell, Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace, Mrs. Fred Merhoff and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Thorne had as their guests Sunday Mrs. Julia E. Thorne.

Misses Niva and Virginia Bell, of Louisville, spent Saturday with their aunt, Mrs. Mary Brown.

Mrs. Mary Shepherd, of Louisville, is with her daughter, Mrs. Thorne.

Wilson Summers, of Louisville, visited his mother Sunday.

J. C. Brown, of Jeffersontown, Ind., spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown.

A NEW STORM BUGGY

For WINTER and SPRING PROTECTION

Why do you expose yourself to the danger ous conditions of WINTER when

Driving with the thermometer at ZERO is safe and comfortable in an

AHLBRAND STORM BUGGY

1913 MODELS READY FOR DELIVERY

CALL AND GET ONE

Sold By

HALL SEED CO.

INCORPORATED.

PRESTON AND JEFFERSON,
LOUISVILLE, KY.