KENTUCKY GAZETTE
AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

BY DANIEL BRADFORD, LEXINGTON.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1802.

BLANK BOOKS.

BY JOHN DODDING, BISHOP, CO.

FOR SALE.

Valuable Property For Sale.

CH. HUMPHREYS, will deliver to the public, a large stock of Valuable Property, to be disposed of in the melt case, on the premises. This book is warranted to be as it is described, and to be kept up in the best manner. The following are the different articles of the property: 1. A set of copper plates for cannoting; 2. A set of copper plates for putting on stamps; 3. A set of copper plates for the printing of money; 4. A set of copper plates for printing newspapers; 5. A set of copper plates for printing books; 6. A set of copper plates for printing bills; 7. A set of copper plates for printing charts; 8. A set of copper plates for printing maps; 9. A set of copper plates for printing calendars; and 10. A set of copper plates for printing diplomas. The following are the different colors used in the manufacture of these property: 1. Red; 2. Blue; 3. Green; 4. Yellow; 5. Black; 6. White; and 7. Gold. The following special facilities are offered to the public, in the purchase of these property: 1. A discount of 10% on all purchases; 2. A discount of 20% on all purchases; 3. A discount of 30% on all purchases; 4. A discount of 40% on all purchases; 5. A discount of 50% on all purchases; 6. A discount of 60% on all purchases; 7. A discount of 70% on all purchases; and 8. A discount of 80% on all purchases. The following is the price of these property: 1. A dollar for the first set; 2. Two dollars for the second set; 3. Three dollars for the third set; 4. Four dollars for the fourth set; 5. Five dollars for the fifth set; 6. Six dollars for the sixth set; and 7. Seven dollars for the seventh set. The following is the time allowed for the delivery of these property: 1. A week for the first set; 2. Two weeks for the second set; 3. Three weeks for the third set; 4. Four weeks for the fourth set; 5. Five weeks for the fifth set; 6. Six weeks for the sixth set; and 7. Seven weeks for the seventh set. The following is the address of the seller of these property: 1. The Kentucky Gazette, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

R. MILLER TO PUBLISH IN LEXINGTON.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the University of the State of Kentucky, R. MILLER, a printer of LEXINGTON, has been authorized to publish the Kentucky Gazette, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

LOUISIANA AND THE WEST INDIES.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the University of the State of Kentucky, R. MILLER, a printer of LEXINGTON, has been authorized to publish the Louisiana and the West Indies, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

LAW OF THE U. STATES.

A Law for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union was passed by the United States Congress on the 4th of July, 1802. This Law provides for the establishment of a government for the United States, and for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union. It also provides for the appointment of a Governor, and for the appointment of a Secretary of State. The Governor shall be appointed by the President of the United States, and the Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

A Law for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union was passed by the United States Congress on the 4th of July, 1802. This Law provides for the establishment of a government for the United States, and for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union. It also provides for the appointment of a Governor, and for the appointment of a Secretary of State. The Governor shall be appointed by the President of the United States, and the Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

DANIEL C. COPE.

A Law for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union was passed by the United States Congress on the 4th of July, 1802. This Law provides for the establishment of a government for the United States, and for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union. It also provides for the appointment of a Governor, and for the appointment of a Secretary of State. The Governor shall be appointed by the President of the United States, and the Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.

DANIEL C. COPE.

A Law for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union was passed by the United States Congress on the 4th of July, 1802. This Law provides for the establishment of a government for the United States, and for the admission of Louisiana and the West Indies into the Union. It also provides for the appointment of a Governor, and for the appointment of a Secretary of State. The Governor shall be appointed by the President of the United States, and the Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government. The Governor shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government, and the Secretary of State shall have the power to appoint all the officers of the government.

FOURTH FLOOR.

IVAN D. BROWN, Printer and Publisher.