Horrible Accident Claims 11 Lives

New County Judge Pro Tem Appointed

When Attorney Ky. was appointed last year to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Geesey, State Auditor, the Kentucky County Judge, is also the youngest Kentucky judge in the county.

According to our information, Mr. Gillman has had many experiences in many fields of work and has qualities which should enable him perform the duties required of him as county judge.

Doril Jett, Administrative Assistant, will run the county office.

Cassie Carter

State Tax Equalization Program in Laurel and Letcher Counties

State Auditor, Mr. B. G. Bell of McLeansboro, is serving as secretary of the twenty-five-year-old program for the counties of Kentucky.

Mr. Bell has been with the county for over three years and is familiar with all the procedures of the program.

There were double deaths in the Letcher County Bank at 10:00 a.m. this morning, and the car was a mass of burning debris when it hit the wall.

The victims were identified as Maxie Johnson and his son Bruce, who were both badly burned and died at the scene.

They were employees of the bank and were driving to work at the time of the accident.

Mr. Jett, who is the son of Mr. J. B. Jett, was also killed in the crash.

Robert Price Resigned

Doris Ameen

Robert H. Price, former manager of the Letcher County Bank, has resigned his position with the bank.

The bank will be represented in the new post by Mr. W. J. Price, who was promoted to the position recently.

Mr. Price was with the bank for five years and has been active in community affairs.

Letcher County Development Meeting

If you want a factory in your community, Letcher County, be sure to attend the meeting at the North-Pine Grove Grade School on Sunday night at 8:30.

Hundreds of dollars will be given to the company that will be located in your area.

CORRECTION

Last week it was erroneously reported that the Letcher County Board of Education had voted to raise the salary of the principal of the meeting in favor of the other principals.

“Three Possible Impossibilities”

(As told by Mrs. Alice H. Stephens—By Editor)

There are three impossible cases, known to all who are thoughtful of interesting situations. When we think of them, it causes an expectation of certain events, which will be impossible, but which are not found in the drawer of the greatest probabilities.

George Tolliver’s Grocery

Raided At Hammond

George Tolliver’s Grocery in Hammond was robbed last night by two masked men.

The men entered the store at approximately 10:00 p.m. and demanded all the money in the cash register.

The store owner, Mr. Tolliver, was shot in the leg and is in critical condition at the hospital.

Charlie Holcomb Fills Bond of $5,000 in Murder Charge

Charlie Holcomb of Lone Grove is in jail on a $5,000 bond charged with murdering his wife Last Friday.

Holcomb is charged with the murder of his wife, Evelyn Holcomb, who according to neighbors of Mrs. Holcomb, is said to have come to his home, beat up his wife and family, and then started on Charlie’s father.

Dr. E. P. SLOAN SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Mrs. E. E. Sloan, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks, is slowly improving. Dr. Sloan is suffering from a severe illness.

This improvement is the first for many years, and he is expected to be able to leave his room soon and return to his normal life.

BROTHERHOOD OF MOUNTAIN MUS- TANGS

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church on Tuesday night, March 25, will present a play, "The Robe," in Cinema Scope, as a fund-raising event.

The selection of "The Robe" was made by the Brotherhood, and is expected to provide a good box office.

There will also be a barbeque following the show.

FISH FRY

A Fish Fry is being planned for the Letcher County Fairgrounds on Saturday night.

It will feature live fish, fried fish, and other seafood dishes.

M.D. LEWIS PROPERTY SELLERS FOR $28,000 TO SETTLE ESTATE

On Monday, this week, the Master Commissioner of Letcher County, Mr. M. D. Lewis, has agreed to sell the property of the estate of the late Mr. M. D. Lewis for $28,000.

The property includes a building and 80 acres of land.

The property was once owned by an old family of Letcher County.

The sale is subject to approval by the court.

The proceeds will be used to pay off debts and to settle the estate.

The case was handled by the law firm of Ford and Ford.

The sale was negotiated by Mr. M. D. Lewis, who was the executor of the estate.

The property is located on the outskirts of Whitesburg, Ky., and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.

M.B. LEWIS PROPERTY SELLERS FOR $28,000 TO SETTLE ESTATE

On Monday, this week, the Master Commissioner of Letcher County, Mr. M. D. Lewis, has agreed to sell the property of the estate of the late Mr. M. D. Lewis for $28,000.

The property includes a building and 80 acres of land.

The property was once owned by an old family of Letcher County.

The sale is subject to approval by the court.

The proceeds will be used to pay off debts and to settle the estate.

The case was handled by the law firm of Ford and Ford.

The sale was negotiated by Mr. M. D. Lewis, who was the executor of the estate.

The property is located on the outskirts of Whitesburg, Ky., and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.

M.B. LEWIS PROPERTY SELLERS FOR $28,000 TO SETTLE ESTATE

On Monday, this week, the Master Commissioner of Letcher County, Mr. M. D. Lewis, has agreed to sell the property of the estate of the late Mr. M. D. Lewis for $28,000.

The property includes a building and 80 acres of land.

The property was once owned by an old family of Letcher County.

The sale is subject to approval by the court.

The proceeds will be used to pay off debts and to settle the estate.

The case was handled by the law firm of Ford and Ford.

The sale was negotiated by Mr. M. D. Lewis, who was the executor of the estate.

The property is located on the outskirts of Whitesburg, Ky., and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.

M.B. LEWIS PROPERTY SELLERS FOR $28,000 TO SETTLE ESTATE

On Monday, this week, the Master Commissioner of Letcher County, Mr. M. D. Lewis, has agreed to sell the property of the estate of the late Mr. M. D. Lewis for $28,000.

The property includes a building and 80 acres of land.

The property was once owned by an old family of Letcher County.

The sale is subject to approval by the court.

The proceeds will be used to pay off debts and to settle the estate.

The case was handled by the law firm of Ford and Ford.

The sale was negotiated by Mr. M. D. Lewis, who was the executor of the estate.

The property is located on the outskirts of Whitesburg, Ky., and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.