Jordan, the birthday of their daughter Sherry, and the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Banks, were honored at a party to celebrate their birthday Saturday, March 11th, in their home in Carrolls. Friends of the twins who were present were Amy Bentley, Robin Banks, Beth Jenkins, Shelly and Tamara Musgrave, Carla and Sarah Wolfe, Sherry Bailey, Edwin Blake Sted- tars, Tracy Roy, Jeff Zink and Randi Gish, Jim Allison, Lee Ann and Carrie Clarke, Donna and Beth Deam, Marnie Wright, Melody Roby, Anita Mullins, Donna Whitehead, Carla Kay Gallion, all of Jenkins. Steve Collins of Falmouth and Mark Mallard of Wise, Va. Several of the little girls stayed on after the birthday party to enjoy a slumber party afterward.

Assisting Mrs. Wright with the party were her two more daughters, Teres and Karen, a student at I.S., and was home for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Stovall of Jenkins were in Knoxville over the week. The Gillettes were visiting their daughter, Linda, who is in school there. Mrs. Stovall was attending a beauty show, Jenkins City Council met Wed-nesday night March 8 at 6 p.m. The Gilettles were visiting their daughter, Linda, who is in school there. Mrs. Stovall was attending a beauty show, Jenkins City Council held their March meeting on the 16th at 4 p.m., in the Women’s Club house. A luncheon was served by some of the members after the business session. The program, on food buying, was given by Mrs. Vicki Bowling. There were about 36 women present.

The A. W. Rogers Chapter of the Deodar Club in Jenkins has organized a Mothers’ Club. The purpose of this club is to hold out with refrements and refreshments for the boys Deodar Club. The Mother’s Club meets each fourth Thursday of the month at 7:30 p.m. In the Jenkins Lodge at 3 Bradley Street. The meeting this month will be March 28. Any mother, father, or relative interested in joining the club is asked to ar- rive at this meeting.

Boys aged 14-18 who are inter- ested in joining Deodar may get an application petition from any member of Deodar or the Maxnion Lodge. It isn’t necessary that the boy applying for mem- bership have a patent in the Maxnion Lodge; any kind or relative can sign the recommendation.

The Rev. T. Wade Shalton, Secretary of Evangelism for the Kentucky Baptist Convention, will speak Friday evening, March 17, at the Fleming Sack- ing Club House.

Mrs. Sturgill dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Allie C. Sturgill, 76, will be con- ducted at 2 p.m., Friday, March 17, at Maple Grove Regular Baptist Church. The burial will be in the Roberts branch of the se- lection of some typewriters and other office equipment and a file book. The deadline has been set for April 15. Mrs. and Mrs. Joe Tom of Dun- brook are planning a road trip on highway 461 recently on a chart made from a map where they were visiting their daughter’s daughter, a student at Morehead University. Mr. and Mrs. Tom was a patient at Lakeside Hospital but is now home and doing well. Mrs. Tom is a patient at the Meade- nahan Regional Hospital in Madisonville. Mr. and Mrs. Tom of Dun- brook are planning a road trip on highway 461 recently on a chart made from a map where they were visiting their daughter’s daughter, a student at Morehead University. Mr. and Mrs. Tom was a patient at Lakeside Hospital but is now home and doing well. Mrs. Tom is a patient at the Meade- nahan Regional Hospital in Madisonville.

Mrs. J. C. Stambough’s brother came home from Kingsport for a visit and was with him at the time he was in the Jenkins Clinic. The Jenkins Homemakers Club held their March meeting on the 9th at 4 p.m., in the Women’s Club house. A luncheon was served by some of the members after the business session. The program, on food buying, was given by Mrs. Vicki Bowling. There were about 36 women present.

LOU WHITFORD EGGIS

Piano recital held

Mrs. Louise Whitford Egger presen- ted a piano recital Sunday, March 5, 1957 in the studio of the Edgar Studio of Music in Jenkins.

The program included works of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Hindemith, Mozart, and Scarlatti, Mrs. Egger has been teaching private piano lessons to some for five years. Prior to opening the studio of Music here, she taught private lessons in Huntington, Va., for a year and also was di- rector of music in the Norfork First Baptist Church during the same period.

A graduate of Sullivan College and a member of the Music Faculty of Vincennes University, she has spent two years studying music at the Montana University in Austin, Texas.

Adams rites held

Funeral services for Gene Adams of Miamisburg, Ohio, were held at the Blair Branch Regular Baptist Church, Jessamine, March 9. Eldon Marine ion and L. D. Back officiated. Burial was in the Blair Cemetery.

Mrs. Adams, a construction worker, was killed accidentally in a fall, at her job.

Survivors are his parents, Geo- riga and Ruby Blair Adams; a sister, Mindy Rose Adams, and her husband, Dan Adams; a brother, Lester Adams, and his wife, Dorothy; and a daughter, Deanna Blair. Survivors include her husband, William Sturgill; eight children, and the maternal grandparents, Mrs. Blanche Sparks and Mrs. Nellie Fawson; and the paternal grandparents, Mrs. Ellis Bogan, both of Pound, Eastern Kentucky; barnes Sturgill, Mrs. Jack Johnson and Mrs. Sturgill in the hospital, all of Jenkins; 49 grandchildren, aged several great-grandchildren, five of whom, Margaret Adkins, Mrs. Charles Wise, Mrs. Virginia Deam, Mrs. Morris Johnson, and Mrs. Sturgill in the hospital, all of Jenkins; 49 grandchildren, aged several great-grandchildren, five of whom, Margaret Adkins, Mrs. Charles Wise, Mrs. Virginia Deam, Mrs. Morris Johnson, and Mrs. Robert Shiner.

Those who have received the Work for Martha Award, a $500 gift to the home, are: Mrs. Lula Duke of Whitesburg; Mrs. Faye Lewis of Whitesburg; Mrs. L.C. Collins, who is a member of the McGladdens of Huntington, was a visitor in town this weekend.

Nurses sought for recognition

Do you know somebody who used to be a nurse but no longer is practicing medicine? State and local health officials are attempting to locate all nurses in Kentucky, registered and practical, and active or in- active.

The drive to locate all nurses in Kentucky is known as a Mississippi Nurse Registration Week March 20-28, as pro- claimed by Governor Scott. Officially plan a review comes through the National Nurse Registration Act and Training Act last winter. Those who have been inactive for the past five years. To all nurses desiring to return to the goodness or to enter the community.

Health officials urged that all nurses recite during the next few days, and stressed that re- gistration would not obligate any nurse to take a position or to enroll in the course.

Registered nurses and practical nurses were urged to get in touch with one of the following: Mrs. Lillian Kendrick, Mrs. J.D. Jenkins Clinic House; Mrs. Nancy Cline; Mrs. J.D. Jenkins Clinic House; Mrs. Grace Wells Collins, R.N., Letcher County Health Department.

Flood damage (from Page 1)

said. He believed that the road wanted to be a spectacular one today in early													early.

The judge said that he did not know whether Eastern Kentucky was ready for the Jackson Dam in re- piring flood damage. At the meeting, the judge said, the county are the sharing the cost of the Jackson Dam.

The county has two ballots, check marks on the 20,000 or $20,000 bond. Any vote backed and seven were asked to vote for the bill. At press time they had no more than 1,000 or 2,000 but many were still in need of further work, he reported.

Curry baby dies

Funeral services for sheets Marie- ric Curry, two-month-old daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lewis Lewis, were held March 15 at the Over- Fork Baptist Church, 6-18. Elders Riley Foster and I.J. Maggard officiated. Burial was in the Magazine Cemetery at Perdure.

The baby died March 8 at the Children’s Memorial Hospital in Chicago.

Barrier the parents, survivors are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus eggs, Eddie, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cur- mo, and he was Funeral at Fortune .

Clarence Morton dies

Funeral services for Clarence (Jingles) Morton, 54, were post- poned March 19 at the chapel of Moore and Funeral Home, ministry were the Rev. David Moreau and the Rev. Ed Henry. Burial was in the Douglas Day Pentecostal Cemetery at Fire Mountain.

Mr. Morton died Saturday in Cincinnati after a short illness. He was a son of the late Conley and Betty Morton.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lillie Adams Morton two children, Mrs. Carol Joyce York of Rapid City, R.D. 4, and Mrs. Mrs. Carla York of the Philippines four grandchildren the themselves, Miller Adams of C. Ohio; Ballard Morton Adams, Ohio, and Felix Morton of Detroit.

Mr. Morton was a member of the First Baptist Church, Amer- ican Church in Whitesburg, and was a member of the VFW of Foreign Wars post 626.

THE MOUNTAIN EAGLE is pub- lished every Thursday at 145 W. Main Street, Whitesburg, Letch- er County, Kentucky, 41858. Thomas E. Gish is the editor and publisher. The classified advertising was paid at Whitesburg, Ky. Sub- scription rates, 52 a year inside Letcher County, Single Le- 6. 10 cents. This is Number 44 of Volume 88.

Pigman Bros. Cleaners

Put your family’s best foot forward into spring with a perfect dry cleaning of all their spring garments. We put that really, "like new" look back in!

Spring...

...it’s time to freshen up your family’s clothes, here!