Students from the Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House.

The DuesUSA conference featured 1,500 competitors from around the region, meeting in the form of materials, student success is greatly aided by support from the school district. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County as well as occupationally related contests and leadership development contests.

The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.

Students from the Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House.

The DuesUSA conference featured 1,500 competitors from around the region, meeting in the form of materials, student success is greatly aided by support from the school district. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.

The ATC students advance to state contest

Students from Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House. Students competed in occupational skill and technical sciences contests as well as occupationally related contests and leadership development contests. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.

The ATC students advance to state contest

Students from Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House. Students competed in occupational skill and technical sciences contests as well as occupationally related contests and leadership development contests. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.

The ATC students advance to state contest

Students from Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House. Students competed in occupational skill and technical sciences contests as well as occupationally related contests and leadership development contests. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.

The ATC students advance to state contest

Students from Caldwell County Area Technology Center will go on to compete in District SkillsUSA. The SkillsUSA Conference was held March 2–5 at the Galt House. Students competed in occupational skill and technical sciences contests as well as occupationally related contests and leadership development contests. The ATC serves students from Caldwell County in addition to being the district winner for carpentry. He received a scholarship from the school district.