Two injured in crash

A single vehicle wreck Sunday night on Coral Hill-Halfway Road sent two people to the hospital.

The wreck occurred shortly after 11:00 p.m. when a 1995 Oldsmobile traveling northbound, driven by Christina Pica, 28, of Greensburg, ran off the road and struck a tree and fence line after trying to avoid hitting a deer.

Pica, as well as one of her passengers, 3-year-old Jasmine Davis, also of Greensburg, were transported by Barren-Metcalfe Emergency Medical Services to T.J. Samson Community Hospital, where they were treated and released.

Another passenger in Pica's car, Christopher Dowell, 27, also of Greensburg, refused medical transport.

Deputy Chris Wyatt investigated and was assisted by Deputy Aaron Bennett and Constable Buddy Houchens.

Members of the Hiseville Volunteer Fire Department were first responders at the scene.

Haley and Tessa Lindsey of Glasgow and Alice, Shelton and Paris Feazell of Nashville, Tn.

In lieu of flowers the family requests contributions be made to the Edmonton Baptist Church, 208 Dunham St., Edmonton, Ky. 42129 or the American Heart Association.

The family would like to thank the community for its overwhelming outpouring of love and support.
