

The Executive Committee recommends the above plan to the Board of Trustees for its adoption and upon its approval by the Board that it shall become operative and the Executive Committee shall be empowered to carry such plan into execution, and that the office of principal of the present Academy and that the offices now held by the present teaching staff be abolished, and that said principal and teaching staff be no longer employed by the University