Dear Fred:

I arrived home safely after my very pleasant visit at Rochester and in Minneapolis and I want to tell you how much I appreciate your courtesy and hospitality. It is always stimulating for me to visit Rochester and I am always very much impressed with your genuine and gracious hospitality. I only hope you will come here so that I may have the pleasure in a small part of extending to you our hospitality.

I enjoyed your paper very much and I agree with everything you said. I have yet to hear you say anything that I thought was un-sound surgically.

I fear were I to tell you what a good surgeon you are, you might mistake it for flattery.

With very kind regards,

Frank
