

PUBLIC SALE OF HOUSES AND LOTS!

ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1893.

On the premises, at 10 a. m., we will sell at public auction, about FORTY GOOD LOTS and TWO HOUSES. This property is located of West High Street, opposite Woodard Heights—high, dry and well located. We are not selling for any speculation to ourselves, but to make a division with the Herliby heirs. Don't fail to attend this sale, for here you will get a bargain. We will also sell at the same time a house and lot on Cox street, close by. Terms easy and made known on day of sale.

JAMES McCORMICK,
T. DINEEN.

HEAD US!

Will Some One Kindly Get in the Way?

We are in Danger of Running Over Something.

The Irontons Come Here to Do Us Up.

And We Turn the Trick on Them Three Times.

Our friends, the Ironton's, came, saw and were conquered.

The last of the first series of games with the Ironton's was played yesterday afternoon in the presence of about one thousand spectators. It was a beautiful game and full of interest. Especially was this the case in the seventh inning when the Buckeye boys came within one of tying the score. But when the "Boys in Blue" increased their lead three more scores in the eighth and ninth innings the Lexington contingent breathed easier. Still they did feel a little uneasy for the "Big Four" that did the mischief the day before were to face McFarlan's curves in the ninth, and they only needed four scores to tie the game, but this suspense was of short duration as the home boys made short work of the visiting laddies.

Berte, the first man up, got his base on balls, went to second on a passed ball and got to first in safety, while Berte trotted to third. Reeder hit a slow one to third and Berte attempted to score, but was thrown out at the plate, Wallace going to third. Sommers, in attempting to sacrifice, hit to the pitcher and was thrown out at first. Wallace, trying to score, was thrown out at home.

For the visitors Driscoll singled, Gilman struck out, Little flew out to Reeder and O'Brien knocked a fly to left field, which McFarlan, after a hard run, muffed and Driscoll scored. Frank hit to short field and was thrown out at first.

With the score one to nothing in favor of the visitors Lexington stock was hardly par value, but in the second the boys showed the kind of stuff they were made of, knocking out three runs. Scott was presented with first base by four bad balls and came home on Meredith's single to right field. Meredith stole second. McFarlan struck out, McGann hit a hot one down the foul line to third that proved too hot for the ex-Cleveland third baseman and Meredith scored. McGann tried to steal second, but failed. With two men out Roxy Davis stepped to the plate, and as the visiting left fielder was laying for Roxy in half-center, the tricky catcher fooled him by making a beautiful two-bagger about two feet inside the left foul line. Little Berte, not to be outdone, hit another one of the same kind and Davis scored. Wallace was not equal to the emergency and struck out, leaving Berte on second bag.

Welsh, for the visitors, scored on a hit by Mercer assisted by a wild pitch and a passed ball in the second inning. Reeder made the circuit in the third inning after Frank had muffed his fly to left field. In the third inning for the visitors Gilman singled over second and was safe at first. Little hit to Reeder and Gilman was forced out at second, but too late for a double. O'Brien hit to Sommers who fumbled it and Little was safe at second and O'Brien safe at first. Frank then concluded to try Captain Sommers with another which the Captain handled nicely, throwing it to Reeder forcing O'Brien out, and who in turn fielded it to first, completing a neat double play. The visitors failed to score again until the seventh inning. Mercer singled to center and scored on Driscoll's two-bagger. Gilman hit the ball hard, but McGann took care of it in left. Little singled to right field and Driscoll scored. With one man out and a Buckeye on first and needing only one more score to tie the locals, things looked pretty rocky when that heavy hitter O'Brien selected his wagon tongue, but every heart was made happy by his hit down to Sommers, who completed another double play. This ended the run getting for the visitors.

In the seventh for the local team Reeder hit a long fly to center, which Welch gobbled up. Sommers hit a daisy to center, but Scott knocked a grounder to Little, who threw to Driscoll on the second bag, forcing out Sommers and Driscoll completed a double by throwing Scott out at first. McFarlan singled in the eighth and scored on McGann's three-bagger, but McGann was called out for failing to touch the second bag. Davis ended the inning by knocking a fly to Davy Crockett at first. In the ninth Berte hit the first ball pitched square on the nose for three bases, Wallace hit to short and was thrown out at first. Old reliable Nick disgusted because every one of his long hits had been properly taken care of by the Ohio fielders, determined to make the boys hunt for their ponies and hit one to the center field fence, scoring Berte and he arriving in safety on third. Sommers flew out to Gilman, and after two strikes had been called on Scott he placed a safe over second and Reeder scored. Meredith left Scott on second by hitting an easy one to Mercer, who threw him out at first. Following is the summary:

NOTES.

Three straights from the unbeaten Irontons speaks very well for the "Boys in Blue."

The Captain of the Ironton team, Mr. Ed O'Brien, is not only a good ball player but also a fine disciplinarian. Several times his men questioned the umpire's decision, but they were promptly called down by the Captain with a warning that if they repeated the offense they would be fined.

The Ironton boys play ball for all they are worth and the beauty about their playing is you never can tell who's going to win until that big four—Driscoll, Gilman, Little and O'Brien are put out of the way.

The home club play the Frankforts Thursday in Frankfort with the promise of a return game the following Saturday. Excursion rates will be given over the L. & N.

"POMPEY" PAYNE,

The Famous Gambler, Dies at Hot Springs.

News reached this city late yesterday that John Brand ("Pompey") Payne had died at Hot Springs. His remains will be buried there.

"Pompey" Payne was one of the most notorious men in all Kentucky in his day. He was born in this city and lived here until about 1878, up to which time he conducted several faro banks. Like all daring gamblers he had a fortune one day and was as often flat broke the next. He was generous to a degree and was famous for his lavish charity. He was genial and whole-souled and possessed scores of warm friends. His death will bring the unbidden tear to the eye of many an old comrade. He was a cousin of Wellington Payne and of Breck Payne, of this city. His father was at one time Mayor of Lexington. He was about 67 years of age.

Little, But Gively.
Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean,
And the pleasant land.

And dropping into prose, we would say, that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are mild, but prompt in relieving constipation, sick headache, bilious attacks, pain in the region of kidneys, torpid liver, and in restoring a healthy, natural action to the stomach and bowels. 25 cents a vial. One Pellet a dose. Little, but gively. The use of the old style, drastic pills is an outrage on the human system.

BRIEF LOCALS.

Miss Lucy Ford is visiting friends and relatives in Jessamine County.

Circuit Clerk James C. Rogers and Mr. W. H. Laudeman have returned from a pleasant trip to the World's Fair.

Rev. R. T. Matthews has returned from La Grange where he went to attend the funeral of his uncle, Mr. William Rankin.

Boys are causing great complaint from citizens on South Upper Street by going in bathing in the old work-house pond during the day.

Marix Verden, the aged cripple knocked down by a switch train Friday night, was not so badly injured as at first reported.

Miss McAlister, of Richmond, who became insane a few days since, has been placed in High Oaks Sanitarium in this city.

John McLaughlin, the well known pool seller, is home for a few days rest and will go through the Ohio circuit next week.

Mrs. Charles Cooper, of 297 East Fourth Street, has been quite sick for several days, but we are glad to learn is much better.

W. H. Bareschell, the painter who fell from the amphitheatre at the Fair Grounds, and sustained what was thought to be fatal injuries, we are happy to note is slightly improved and may yet recover.

Rev. W. E. Crabtree, Pastor of Chestnut Street Christian Church, is spending his vacation at the World's Fair. He reports immense crowds, and many grand sights.

Don't You Know

That to have perfect health you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and strength builder. It expels all taint of scrofula, salt rheum and all other humors, and at the same time builds up the whole system and gives nerve strength.

Hood's Pills may be had by mail for 25c of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

PERFECTLY SANE.

A Trumped Up Charge of Lunacy For a Purpose.

The charge of lunacy preferred in Clark County against Miss Sarah B. Munday, of this city, by her brother, David Munday, seems to have been merely a scheme to get the property of Miss Munday into the hands of a trustee. Miss Munday is an aunt of Mrs. J. F. Davis, of this city, with whom she is making her home. Her other relatives feared that Mrs. Davis might be especially favored by Miss Munday in her will and they desired a trusteeship in order that the property might be equally distributed after her death.

Bronston and Allen were retained as the attorneys for Miss Munday and after the writ of lunacy was filed in Winchester and before it could be served here Miss Munday selected the Security, Trust and Safety Vault Co. as her trustee, reserving the right to leave her property according to will heretofore or hereafter made. This restoration did not suit the relatives of Miss Munday, and they determined to have her dragged to Winchester on the charge of lunacy whether or no, and the Sheriff and attorneys came over here for that purpose.

Mr. Bronston immediately swore out a writ of habeas corpus, however, which blocked their little game, and after a long conference they concluded that nothing could be done and went back to Winchester.

Miss Munday is in her 74th year and is as sound minded as any one. She was considerably wrought up over the scheme of her relatives to have her property taken out of her hands, and is quite sick and nervous in consequence.

HE TRIED TO KILL.

But Luckily His Aim Was Not Very Good.

At 12 o'clock last night Officer Grace had quite an exciting chase along Megowan Street, and for a time it sounded as if a regular Fourth of July celebration was in progress. George Dupee, a tough negro, tried to kill Cal Clay, another Negro, in a back yard of a house on Megowan Street, but Clay was too quick and dropped to the ground, thus saving his life. Dupee, as soon as the shooting was over, made a dash for liberty and traveled out Megowan Street at a lively clip, but Officer Grace put a stop to his racing by firing several shots at the fugitive, which brought him to time. He was taken to the Station House on a charge of shooting at without wounding.

13-31—August, 1893.

Reverse 13 and it will be 31, which is exactly the age of Mr. G. W. Schneider, the popular upholsterer of No. 33 North Broadway. Today he has reached the thirty-first mile stone of his panicky journey of life, and he is proud of the event, and after attending divine services this morning he will enjoy the balance of the day at his residence on West Main Street. A few friends from Winchester, Paris and Lexington will pay their respects to his natal day. Many returns, Uncle Schneider.

The occasion of the birthday festivities will be a double event—the infant daughter of Mr. Karl Klein will be taken to the baptismal font of the German Protestant Evangelical Church, on Maryland Avenue, and Rev. John Ramsauer will officiate. Success to Miss Rosa Klein.

Mr. Charles Lee Todd, son of Dr. L. B. Todd, who has been engaged in business in Boston during the past sixteen months, reached home last evening to spend a short vacation. He is gratified to visit his old Kentucky home, to which his many friends warmly welcome him. A friend, Mr. Charles Everett, of Lincoln, Mass., accompanies him. We wish the gentlemen a pleasant time.

At the Court House on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. A. W. Marshall will make a short address to the citizens of Fayette County in behalf of Miss Laura Cravens, the lady candidate for County Superintendent. Ladies are especially invited to be present.

Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. Is the finest remedy in the world. It absolutely cures Catarrh. It cures Neuralgia and Rheumatism. Cures Piles like magic. Cures Salt Rheum in the most soothing manner. Cures Inflamed and Granulated Eyelids. Cures Coughs and Colds. Can be taken internally.
