

Our Morning Edition. We are preparing a Missouri Edition, to go out by the midnight train on the Nashville and Memphis railroads, expressly for the benefit of our large and rapidly increasing list of subscribers at all points west of Louisville. It will go to press at 11 o'clock, and will contain every item of interest that reaches us by telegraph or otherwise up to that moment.

Those who wish to subscribe to the Courier, please leave their orders at our Circulation Office, 110 North Third Street, or at any of our agents. The carriers will have their routes properly arranged and systematized in a few days.

Kentucky will furnish no men to fight against the South. Yesterday the Federal Administration called upon the Governor of this State for four regiments of volunteers to aid them in whipping back into the Union the seven Southern States which have seceded and formed the Southern Confederacy.

To this demand, his Excellency, Gov. MAGOFFIN, replied promptly and emphatically that Kentucky will furnish no troops for such a purpose.

The decision with which our Governor acted will be applauded by every loyal Kentuckian as his refusal to comply with the extraordinary demand of the President will meet their approval and be sustained by them.

Not a regiment, not a company even, will be furnished by any State to the Administration in the unjust and unholiest war it has inaugurated. If the contest is to be continued, the North must meet a UNITED SOUTH.

Excitement in the Country-Sentiment of Kentucky. A correspondent writes that a meeting was to be held in Bloomfield on yesterday evening in honor of the Governor of the Southern Army at Charleston. The feeling of indignation is great against Lincoln for his doctrine of coercion.

The same feeling prevails in Lebanon, Taylorsville, and Shelbyville, as we learn by our correspondents.

The Cause of the South-Soldiers for the Southern Army. Col. Jack Allen, a tried and gallant soldier, is forming a regiment which will start in a few days to assist the men of the South in the struggle for their liberty and their honor.

He has opened an office in this city on Fifth Street, where men can get the latest information by applying in person or by letter.

We are requested to state that transportation is free to the Southern States.

Ho! For the South. The Davis train for the South will start this evening for the South. All persons who wish to join must enroll their names at the rendezvous, Concert Hall, Fifth Street, between Market and Jefferson, to-day. Blankets and camp equipment will be furnished.

COAL RECEIVED. Last evening the steam tug Wild Cat came in from Pittsburg with a heavy load of coal, some 70,000 bushels, all for this market, for Lewis and Fulton. They are ready to fill all orders, large and small, at the very lowest prices.

This firm is reliable and accommodating, and families about to lay in their supplies should give them their orders.

MESSRS. S. G. HENRY & CO.'S sale of first-class boots and shoes, selected especially for private sales, will commence this morning (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock, at auction rooms, at 115 1/2 North Third Street, by order of undersigners, an invoice of men's, women's, misses', and children's boots and shoes, partially damaged by water, will be sold; after which, an invoice of fine tapestry hosiery, and men's satinet pants and coats, received since the sale.

RECORDED. We learn from the Bryans (Ohio) Journal of last week, that Mr. Henry Hardy, a prominent merchant of Upper Sandusky has absconded, taking with him several thousand dollars in money; and leaving undischarged liabilities to the amount of ten thousand dollars. It is supposed that he has emigrated to Germany.

WARREN & BAKER'S retail stock of staple and fancy goods to be sold at auction on Wednesday next, at 11 o'clock, at C. C. Spencer's. The special attention of the ladies is called to this sale. The stock is to be closed out, and the sale will be continued from day to day until all is sold.

ATTENTION! SOUTHERNERS! All who desire to enlist in the Portland Company for the Southern Army, will have an opportunity of doing so by applying immediately to H. W. Morgan, No. 210, north side Green, between Third and Fourth streets, opposite the Courier office.

It will be seen by the notice in our advertising columns that at a meeting of the Louisville Board of Underwriters yesterday, it was resolved heretofore to insert the "war clause" in all policies covering ocean and Gulf risks.

The people were alive with excitement yesterday, and from early in the morning until late at night, our office was crowded with persons, by order of Messrs. E. W. Morgan & Co., who were here to see a deep and earnest feeling exhibited here. The feeling for the South is almost perfectly unanimous.

BURNED IN EFFERV. We learn that some men in New Albany, on Saturday night, burnt in effigy Mr. Norman, the editor of the Louisville Courier. It was done because he opposes the doctrine of coercion as advocated by Ab. Lincoln, at present President of the United States.

The ladies will recollect Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co.'s sale of beautiful and rare roses and flowering plants, from the nursery of Messrs. Elwanger & Fox, at auction rooms, this afternoon (Tuesday) at three o'clock.

Mr. C. C. Spencer has a sale of household furniture this morning, at a private residence, on the corner of First and Broadway, to which we call the attention of housekeepers.

A WEDDING. Wm. Davis, of this city, has recently come into the possession of a great fortune. His brother died a few weeks since in Mississippi, leaving a fortune of $400,000 to be divided between Mr. Davis and his two sisters.

Our evening edition was somewhat delayed yesterday by unfortunate circumstances that will not be likely to occur again, but we issued a very large edition, and it sold like hot cakes.

A gentleman who lost a gold fob and a pocket-book on Thursday night last, the latter containing some money and a note of hand for fifty dollars and other papers, on being notified of his interest by calling on Mr. W. T. Miller.

NOTICE, SOUTHERNERS! All who desire to enlist in the Company now the Southern Army, will have an opportunity of enlisting by applying to John G. P. Hood, at 210 Green Street, between Third and Fourth, opposite the Courier office.

KENTUCKIANS TO ARM!

President Lincoln, backed by his Abolition hordes, is attempting to subjugate Southern people. Our brethren of the South will need to repel the invasion. Those who wish to fight for the Rights and Southern honor can join a regiment which is now forming.

Apply at the rendezvous, Concert Hall, between Market and Jefferson Street. Persons in the country who wish to take part in the cause, will address me at this point. JOHN ALLEN.

The regiment will leave in a few days. Transportation free.

TUESDAY-EVENING OF THE WISCONSIN. KATY O'SHEA. Miss Mangie, who has been a frequent visitor at our office, has been recently disappointed by her husband's desertion. She left Montgomery, Ala., on Saturday last, and consequently was unable to pass through the seat of war.

She has been delayed a week, from the regularity in rains, consequent upon the troubles South. She will appear in the "Wept of the Wisconsin" on "Katy O'Shea."

The theater goes well. The new back track old favorite, "Montezuma," has been a success. The comedy "The House of the Dead," which has been playing in the same room, Mr. Seaton also played.

The FINEST MATCH YET. A match between Messrs. Shaw and Hope, professional, on Saturday, showed some shooting. The match was fifty rods, and on a number nine.

By the way, Col. Duncan, we suppose you propose to dig larger game, as we are heard to be in the hands of the Confederate States. If he shows any disposition with such accuracy as he does pious, they will certainly cry "havo," if they, as we have threatened, "let loose their dogs of war."

A PATRIOTIC MOVEMENT. The Saint Louis Journal states that several first-class steamboats will transport to New Orleans the army of the Confederate States, who desire to enter the service of the Confederate States. We commend this patriotic action to our Louisville steamboatmen.

Major Breckinridge spoke in the afternoon, and with the effect, power, and enthusiasm of argument that can neither be gaudied or overdone. Often we have heard our gallant Senator he has never presented his ideas so clearly, nor has he given attention to arguments so convincing, so patriotic, so truthful, and so manly as he did in his speech yesterday.

Our schools and colleges are flourishing. At a recent exhibition of the Woodford Female College, Richard Reid, Esq., an able young attorney of our town, being suddenly called upon, delivered an exceedingly appropriate, eloquent, and pertinent speech. It was well timed and well pleased.

RECORDED. We learn from the Bryans (Ohio) Journal of last week, that Mr. Henry Hardy, a prominent merchant of Upper Sandusky has absconded, taking with him several thousand dollars in money; and leaving undischarged liabilities to the amount of ten thousand dollars. It is supposed that he has emigrated to Germany.

RECKONING IN GEORGIA.

VERMILION, April 15. (Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.) It seems that nothing whatever-the fiercest storm, the most chilling rains, the diabolical clouds-

PUBLIC MEETING.

All those opposed to the war policy of the Lincoln Administration, its armed invasion of the Southern States, and its manifold attempts to subjugate them, as shown by his intention to reinforce it by a large and armed army; and all who sympathize with the people of the South in their present honest anxiety, and who wish to deplore the necessity which forced the conflict upon them, are resolved to stand by their Southern brethren to the end, if the attempt to subjugate them is not abandoned, are respectfully requested to meet in the East Room of the Capitol, on Tuesday, the 16th inst., at 12 o'clock, P.
