

- Todd to kill Gregg, 446; furnished mare for Kate Clarke to ride when kidnapped, 451.
- Taylor, Goodwin: in Quantrill meeting at Paola, 150; went to Stanton to protect Quantrill, 157; rode to Paola with Quantrill, 159.
- Taylor, Joe: one of Terrill's men, 477.
- Taylor, R. Anna: letter of to J. J. Lutz, 142; says her brother spoke of Charley Hart, 146.
- Templeton, Fay: daughter of Alice Van Ness Templeton, 306.
- Templeton, John: married Alice Van Ness, 306.
- Templeton & Wildman: in Kansas City in 1863, 395.
- Terrill, Captain Ed.: attacked Quantrill and Marion; soldier of killed Marion, 463; letter of R. T. Owen about; career of set out; had been in Confederate army; bad reputation of; crimes of; death of relief to friends, 465; commissioned by General Palmer to find and kill Quantrill; men and equipments of; wounded Quantrill and brought him to Louisville, 469; discharge of, 470; in pursuit of Quantrill; came on him at Wakefield's barn, 471; dispersed guerrillas; bribed by Quantrill to allow him to remain at Wakefield's, 474; may have fired fatal shot; shot off Quantrill's finger; bribed by Wakefield to not molest his property; left Quantrill with Wakefield under penalties, 478; said to have taken little part in battle at Wakefield's; death of; letter of Dr. Yenowine, 477; took Quantrill to Louisville; got him medical attention on road; delivered him to John M. Palmer, 480.
- The Civil War on the Border*: referred to, 262.
- The Gun and the Gospel*: authority on Lawrence Massacre, 336.
- The Kansas Conflict*: no authority on Lawrence Massacre; character of, 336.
- The Kansas Magazine*: referred to, 99.
- The Lawrence Massacre*: mentioned, 323; quoted, 324; referred to, 335; quoted, 333.
- Thomas, Captain Aaron: at Independence under Buell, 259; killed, 267.
- Thomas, Mrs. Chester: riding in ambulance of General Blunt, 427; escape of from guerrillas at Baxter, 428.
- Thompson, ———: house of robbed by Union soldiers; Quantrill in fight at house of, 200.
- Thompson, Judge Alexander: uncle of Mrs. Quantrill at Chambersburg; reared her from infancy, 33.
- Thompson, Mrs. Frances Beeson: statement of about Mrs. Quantrill, 34; heard rumors that Quantrill had killed man at Mendota, 52; says it was near Urichsville that Quantrill taught last school in Ohio, 53; refutes statement of Mrs. Wagstaff, 56; amount paid Quantrill for holding land, 63; attempted murder of her father by Quantrill, 64; carried dinners to squatter court, 67; gave information about settlement of Tuscarora Lake in Johnson county, 72.
- Thompson, Gid W.: at battle of Independence, 262; wounded, 266; paroled prisoners, 267.