A Family Tradition

Charlie's Grandchildren

Not only has attending UK been a tradition, but being a member of the UK Alumni Association has, too. I'm proud that my family is a part of the UK alumni community.

My mother, Henrietta Moore, is an alumna of the University of Kentucky. She is 92 years old and still as faithful as ever to the Big Blue. My wife, Shelby, and our three daughters, Elizabeth, Ann and Hollie are also UK alumnae. Elizabeth's husband, Mark and my sister, Judy, along with her husband, David, are all UK alumni. My other sister, Ann, is married to Henry Pepper, also a UK alumnus. I have a number of nephews, Tommy Adams, Charles Adams, Harris Pepper, Dr. John Buchanan and David Buchanan that are alumni. Other members of my family, Stephanie Pepper, Chad and Evelyn Duncan, DeeDee Buchanan, Sale Buchanan, Amy Buchanan and Henrietta Profancik are also alumni. We are all members of the UK Alumni Association!

We have been active in the UK Alumni Association for years and love it! I'd like to invite you to make being a part of your alma mater a tradition! Join the UK Alumni Association community today!
