in Roman arch - ^{and accounts} and the ferys chiefly occupied by Huddloom weavers
- - I am who was accessed last week
to be my Curator after May - when the family
join me.

I look forward
with pleasure to having my hands full. Never did Achilles long more earnestly for the bustle of the battle when he wore the band for a time stuck here up in his tent than I have done for occupation during the last of year - Love

My dear Willson

I duly received yours of the 12th. ult. and by the same mail a bill on London from Messrs.
Duncan Shearman & Co.
for £78. 15/- 2^d being the balance of Three Hundred and Eighty five $\frac{92}{100}$ Dollars due me as shown in account Current between us transmitted in yours of 12th. Feb'y.

The accounts are kept with your usual
accuracy and neatness and are I doubt not perfectly correct. The
