

20W-

- the remainder of this day nearly
- 5 the next day without a satisfaction was rather fatiguing - tribe about I should suppose 19 years they have had blue eyes and a skin, still I think it must have taken place at some time neatness & cleanliness than a good specimen. Had it not upon her head I should have said of course in their own style moccasins - this the whole road
- 6 slept on board the Canal boat & took too late for the Canandaigua ^{morning} 2 at the falls &c, rather proving agricultural country between called as Mr. H. says,
- 7 Went out to dinner with Uncle, in bed, a long chat with his house
- 8 Started at 11 A.M. Mr. Spencer left us the only Christian, (i.e. enlight the good luck to here or far in being, crops, trade, and politics, side hits at Brittain seeing my

1/2 of the night, it was full moon and till 12 get I was glad to get away, the excitement Saw a beautiful Indian woman of the - do, a peculiar mark of the tribe is that kind of raven look about them ever since that an intermarriage with whites must they however say not. They show a greater most others, & this woman certainly was been for an ugly man's hat of Yankee shape she was elegantly may I call it, dressed
 - she came down on the Railroad with us selling road I ever saw. From Manchester to Lewisport arrived in Rochester before 6 P.M. but in time stage, passed the time as well as I could till who again detained in Rochester. A glorious Rochester & Canandaigua - found all as usual got my baggage into the village I saw Mr. H. got orders to start for Utica I an intelligent Brittain. till Geneva where Mr. S. tened, polished, civilized) conversation, ever I had while travelling America - the general subject all encompassing narrow minded politics, with Scotch phrases perhaps