

be as comfortable as possible, in a very old house and one that is rather small for them but it was the best they could do. Last Monday I took the baby to his new home, it was a joyful meeting.
I did not think a year old baby could express as much joy as he did on meeting his brother, they are devoted to each other Phoebe could not keep back the tears on seeing him. I remained until Thursday helping them regulate. They have a very pleasant front room about 18 feet square fitted up as a parlour with a handsome sofa lounge which will be use by friends staying with them, opening into that is their bed room and next to that is the dining room and a kitchen back of that they have but one room up stairs which Mr H will use for his study in which they will have a lounge for any friend if they should be full down stairs, you know Mr H is very much like Richard he will have company. Mrs Dobyns and her daughters, family live next door which makes it very pleasant Alice's youngest child (a boy) is just Frank's age, a nice play mate for him. Phoebe is looking better than she has done for several years and is so delighted with being so near home and with so many old friends as she has at Mayfield the children are in good health and Mr Heitman full of hope for future usefulness them of course we are truly thankful for the change. Lizzy will go out to spend Christmas week with them, Phoebe has the prospect of getting an excellent woman and her son (70 years old) so she will be nicely fixed in
