

I unintentionally commenced this letter on a half sheet and shall not, as I have not time copy it on a whole one, I wish to give it to Pa to direct when he comes to dinner.

Mollie Richeson has returned home in fine health and spirits

We shall look anxiously for your letters from the City. I hope you heard Mr Woodworth's sermon last Sabbath.

The family are all well, all send their love. I know of nothing new, as I have been so busied I have been working very industriously to aid in getting my sewing well done up preparatory to housekeeping.

God bless you, and return you in safety to your little family.

Your Devoted

Mary Collins

Aunt Nelly says, have you forgotten her and the ducks

L3 If you have the money to spare, will you pay Messrs. Gales & Seaton, $18, for three years subscription to the National Intelligencer? I will refund it upon your return.

Lewis Collins