

1864.
O. F. C. Jan. 12th.
Tuesday.

My Dear Mother

I received your letters to-day, and Aunt Lizzies, yesterday. I gave Prof. his note. Mr Morris ^{went} ~~went~~ down to the city, yesterday morning, and returned in the evening. He called at Father's office, but Father was not in. ~~What~~ ^{What} to yesterday noon, I had heard from no one of the family, so it was at my request that he called there.

Prof. was at the depot last night, and says he saw a bundle there for me. Jimmy (the hired man) says he will go for it as soon as he can, but he cant promise to get it to-day. However, it is safe. By the way,