

- George Rogers Clark to Certain Traders, July 24, 1778: arbitration of disputes between the traders. 62
- Joseph Bowman to John Hite, July 30, 1778: Indian forays on the frontier—Clark occupies Kaskaskia—Bowman occupies Prairie du Rocher, St. Philippe and Cahokia. . . . 612
- Joseph Bowman to George Brinker, July 30, 1778: Indian forays on the frontier—Clark occupies Kaskaskia—Bowman occupies Prairie du Rocher, St. Philippe and Cahokia—influence of French over Indians. 614

CHAPTER IV

THE CAPTURE OF VINCENNES BY LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR HAMILTON AND CLARK'S PLANS,
AUGUST 6, 1778—FEBRUARY 24, 1779

- George Rogers Clark to Oliver Pollock, August 6, 1778: activities of O. Pollock—Clark's need of provisions and ammunition—success of the mission to Vincennes. 64
- George Rogers Clark to the Chief of the Winnebago, August 22, 1778: treaty between Clark and the Winnebago. . . . 65
- James Willing to George Rogers Clark, August 22, 1778: re-enforcements for Clark. 66
- Clark's Proclamation to the Fox Indians, August 28, 1778: treaty between Clark and the Fox Indians. 66
- James Willing to George Rogers Clark, September 1, 1778: revolt at Natchez—Indian treaties—treachery of French—re-enforcements for Clark—capture of St. Augustine. . . 67
- George Rogers Clark to Patrick Henry, September 16, 1778: friendliness of De Leyba—Hamilton plans capture of Illinois. 68
- John Bowman to George Rogers Clark, October 14, 1778: Indian troubles—instructions to McIntosh—Harrod sent for salt. 69
- Joseph Bowman to George Rogers Clark, October 30, 1778: purchase of horses—Indian relations. 71